Converse College in Spartanburg, SC

Artists’ Guild of Spartanburg Offers Works by Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence

The West Main Artists Co-op in Spartanburg, SC, offers Pottery Exhibit

Artists’ Guild of Spartanburg Offers Works by Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence

Animation Studios in Orlando, FL. They worked alongside an international team of artists on many of the classically animated Disney films such as The Lion King, Lilo & Stitch, and Brother Bear. This exhibition features a variety of new works from local and distant experiences. Finney has gained national attention most recently as an “Artist to Watch” from Southwest Art Magazine. He won an award of distinction from the American Impressionists Society and was juried into and participated in the nationally acclaimed Plein Air Easton show in Maryland.

West Main Artists Co-op in Spartanburg, SC, Offers Pottery Exhibit

The West Main Artists Co-op in Spartanburg, SC, will present the 4th Annual Pottery Palooza!, featuring works by the Co-op’s potters, on view in The Venue, from Oct. 15 through Nov. 24. A reception will be held on Oct. 15, from 5-9pm. The pottery artists participating in the month long event are Agnes Martin, Al Hofmann, Allison Gross, DeeDee Cohen, Jeanne Brown, Joan Wheasley, Louise Coburn, Nancy Williamson, Rebekah Dove, Robert Woods, and Tracey Timmons. Many of the artists make functional pottery, although there are a number that enjoy reaching creative limits with decorative pieces, sculpture, jewelry and miniatures.

This is a perfect time to begin looking toward the holidays for new pieces to adorn festive tables or to find that one of a kind gift for a special neighbor. This is a perfect time to begin looking toward the holidays for new pieces to adorn festive tables or to find that one of a kind gift for a special neighbor. The world is changing all the time. An artist can help preserve and learn from the past and where do you send that info?

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, contact Kathryn Boucher, Milliken Art Gallery Director by e-mail at (kathryn.boucher@converse.edu).

Work by David Zacharias

Work by Christine Lawrence

Arts’ Guild of Spartanburg Offers Works by Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence

Artists’ Guild of Spartanburg, SC, will present Double Vision, an exhibit of works by husband and wife artists, Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence, on view in the Guild’s Gallery, at the Chapman Cultural Center, from Oct. 1 - 29, 2015. A reception will be held on Oct. 15.

Both Finney and Lawrence attended art school, and then went into the commercial art field to earn enough money to pursue their ultimate dreams of being fine art painters. They met at Walt Disney Feature Animation Studios in Orlando, FL. They worked alongside an international team of artists on many of the classically animated Disney films such as The Lion King, Lilo & Stitch, and Brother Bear. This exhibition features a variety of new works from local and distant experiences. Finney has gained national attention most recently as an “Artist to Watch” from Southwest Art Magazine. He won an award of distinction from the American Impressionists Society and was juried into and participated in the nationally acclaimed Plein Air Easton show in Maryland.

Work by Trey Finney

Work by Christine Lawrence

Artists’ Guild of Spartanburg, SC, will present Double Vision, an exhibit of works by husband and wife artists, Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence, on view in the Guild’s Gallery, at the Chapman Cultural Center, from Oct. 1 - 29, 2015. A reception will be held on Oct. 15.

Both Finney and Lawrence attended art school, and then went into the commercial art field to earn enough money to pursue their ultimate dreams of being fine art painters. They met at Walt Disney Feature Animation Studios in Orlando, FL. They worked alongside an international team of artists on many of the classically animated Disney films such as The Lion King, Lilo & Stitch, and Brother Bear. This exhibition features a variety of new works from local and distant experiences. Finney has gained national attention most recently as an “Artist to Watch” from Southwest Art Magazine. He won an award of distinction from the American Impressionists Society and was juried into and participated in the nationally acclaimed Plein Air Easton show in Maryland.

Work by Christine Lawrence

Work by David Zacharias

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, contact Kathryn Boucher, Milliken Art Gallery Director by e-mail at (kathryn.boucher@converse.edu).

Work by Christine Lawrence

Arts’ Guild of Spartanburg Offers Works by Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence

Artists’ Guild of Spartanburg, SC, will present Double Vision, an exhibit of works by husband and wife artists, Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence, on view in the Guild’s Gallery, at the Chapman Cultural Center, from Oct. 1 - 29, 2015. A reception will be held on Oct. 15.

Both Finney and Lawrence attended art school, and then went into the commercial art field to earn enough money to pursue their ultimate dreams of being fine art painters. They met at Walt Disney Feature Animation Studios in Orlando, FL. They worked alongside an international team of artists on many of the classically animated Disney films such as The Lion King, Lilo & Stitch, and Brother Bear. This exhibition features a variety of new works from local and distant experiences. Finney has gained national attention most recently as an “Artist to Watch” from Southwest Art Magazine. He won an award of distinction from the American Impressionists Society and was juried into and participated in the nationally acclaimed Plein Air Easton show in Maryland.

Work by Christine Lawrence

Work by David Zacharias

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, contact Kathryn Boucher, Milliken Art Gallery Director by e-mail at (kathryn.boucher@converse.edu).

Work by Christine Lawrence

Arts’ Guild of Spartanburg Offers Works by Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence

Artists’ Guild of Spartanburg, SC, will present Double Vision, an exhibit of works by husband and wife artists, Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence, on view in the Guild’s Gallery, at the Chapman Cultural Center, from Oct. 1 - 29, 2015. A reception will be held on Oct. 15.

Both Finney and Lawrence attended art school, and then went into the commercial art field to earn enough money to pursue their ultimate dreams of being fine art painters. They met at Walt Disney Feature Animation Studios in Orlando, FL. They worked alongside an international team of artists on many of the classically animated Disney films such as The Lion King, Lilo & Stitch, and Brother Bear. This exhibition features a variety of new works from local and distant experiences. Finney has gained national attention most recently as an “Artist to Watch” from Southwest Art Magazine. He won an award of distinction from the American Impressionists Society and was juried into and participated in the nationally acclaimed Plein Air Easton show in Maryland.

Work by Christine Lawrence

Work by David Zacharias

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, contact Kathryn Boucher, Milliken Art Gallery Director by e-mail at (kathryn.boucher@converse.edu).

Work by Christine Lawrence

Arts’ Guild of Spartanburg Offers Works by Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence

Artists’ Guild of Spartanburg, SC, will present Double Vision, an exhibit of works by husband and wife artists, Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence, on view in the Guild’s Gallery, at the Chapman Cultural Center, from Oct. 1 - 29, 2015. A reception will be held on Oct. 15.

Both Finney and Lawrence attended art school, and then went into the commercial art field to earn enough money to pursue their ultimate dreams of being fine art painters. They met at Walt Disney Feature Animation Studios in Orlando, FL. They worked alongside an international team of artists on many of the classically animated Disney films such as The Lion King, Lilo & Stitch, and Brother Bear. This exhibition features a variety of new works from local and distant experiences. Finney has gained national attention most recently as an “Artist to Watch” from Southwest Art Magazine. He won an award of distinction from the American Impressionists Society and was juried into and participated in the nationally acclaimed Plein Air Easton show in Maryland.

Work by Christine Lawrence

Work by David Zacharias

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, contact Kathryn Boucher, Milliken Art Gallery Director by e-mail at (kathryn.boucher@converse.edu).

Work by Christine Lawrence

Arts’ Guild of Spartanburg Offers Works by Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence

Artists’ Guild of Spartanburg, SC, will present Double Vision, an exhibit of works by husband and wife artists, Trey Finney and Christine Lawrence, on view in the Guild’s Gallery, at the Chapman Cultural Center, from Oct. 1 - 29, 2015. A reception will be held on Oct. 15.