His approach to painting is rooted in the American Arts & Crafts and Tonalist traditions - both based on love and respect for nature, hand-craftsmanship, and good design. When asked what drew him to this style, Krueger says, "Their shared ethos is timeless and compelling: Create fully with your head, heart and hand. Use natural materials. Be in tune with nature. I think to some degree the typically warm, low-key color palette found in both genres suits my outlook and temperament as a painter." Ongoing - Established in 1992, Groveswood Gallery is nationally recognized for its dedication to fine American-made art and craft.
