South Carolina State University in Orangeburg, SC, Features Works From African Art Collection

The Hitchcock Health Center in Aiken, SC, in partnership with the Aiken Artists Guild, will present an exhibit of works by J. Terence “Terry” Smith, that will be on view from Nov. 1 - 30, 2012. After a long career as a civilian with the Department of the Army, Smith retired in 2008 as the Deputy Garrison Commander at Fort Gordon, and in a White House ceremony he subsequently received a national leadership award from the Office of the Secretary of Defense. Smith has painted for many years, always working in the realism tradition, and is a 1971 graduate of the University of Alabama. During his career he lived and worked in Mobile, AL, Columbus, GA, and Hampton and Newport News, VA, as well as Augusta, where he has lived since 1986. In addition to his work as an artist, Smith is a docent at the Morris Museum of Art in Augusta.
