to the exhibition, collection, preservation and documentation of South Carolina's visual artists, past and present, through a variety of exhibitions and programs. This year marks the museum's 30th anniversary, and to celebrate the diversity of South Carolina art, we will host a juried exhibition. Artists from across the state will have the opportunity to exhibit their work at the State Museum in Columbia, and to win cash prizes up to $1,500. Ongoing - "ART: A Collection of Collections." The SC State Museum is home to over 4,000 works of art, hand-made objects and various collections within its collection. Many of these pieces have never been on display in the museum. ART: A Collection of Collections will highlight some of these one-of-a-kind collections within the museum's entire collection. Guests will get to explore works of fine, folk and decorative art made by South Carolina artists that are being grouped into collections within the exhibit based on medium, subject or artist. This exhibit will showcase rarely seen artwork by South Carolina artists, enhanced by the fascinating stories of their inception and why they belong with other works of art to give us a new look at South Carolina and its visual culture. The Crescent Café, second floor mezzanine of the Museum. The house menu offers a variety of baked goods, juices, coffee, hot chocolate and tea. Lunchtime offerings include deli sandwiches and alternating daily soups, as well as grilled chicken salads and sandwiches. And let's not forget the house specialty: spectacular fudge, handmade on-site. Museum Hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Sun., 1-5pm. Admission: Yes. Contact: call 803/898-4921 or at (<http://scmuseum.org>).

Greenville Center for Creative Arts, 25 Draper Street, Greenville. Through Jan. 23 - "Potential and Limits: Visions in Encaustic". GCCA is pleased to showcase six contemporary artists inspired by the historic medium of encaustic art. From the Greek word enkaustikos - "to burn in" - encaustic refers to the process of painting with fused layers of melted beeswax and resin. A 2000-year-old medium, it reemerges fresh, modern, and dynamic in the hands of artists Danielle Fontaine (Greenville, SC), Pat Kilburg (Greenville, SC), Michael Ziemer (Piedmont, SC), Roger Bruckner (Taylors, SC), Jess Stone (Piedmont, SC), and in Gallery B, Theresa Gooby (Beacon, NY). Save the date for the ARTalk "From A to B: How Art Moves Us" scheduled for Jan. 8 from 6 - 7pm, where the artists of "Potential and Limits" will talk about the many ways in which creating art moves us. Ongoing - Home to 16 studio artists. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm & Sat., 11am-3pm. Contact: call 864/735-3948 or at (www.artcentergreenville.org).

Greenville County Museum of Art, 420 College Street, Greenville. Through Jan. 13 - "Andrew Wyeth Watercolors: Selections from the Greenville Collection". The watercolors in this show reflect Andrew Wyeth's career-long project of transforming his subjects into forceful and compelling meditations on how we conceptualize what we see. The visual power of each painting relies on simple contrasts between dark and light. Much like ancient Chinese calligraphy or modern abstract expressionist techniques, Wyeth's intuitive, efficient brushstrokes internalize the dynamic energy of gesture as they simultaneously define and anchor each composition's overall structural framework. The viewer's eye sees only what is necessary to construct meaning from experience. Ongoing - "Anna Heyward Taylor: GCMA Collection". Born in Columbia, artist Anna Heyward Taylor (1879-1956) was at the forefront of the Charleston Renaissance at the turn of the 20th century. She graduated from the SC College for Women, and later studied in Holland with William Merritt Chase. In 1916, and again in 1920, she traveled to British Guiana as a scientific illustrator drawing native plant life. She returned to South Carolina in 1929 and settled in Charleston, where she collaborated with Chalmers Murray on "This Our Land," a book of prints inspired by the crops--indigo, rice, cotton, tobacco--and natural life--birds and flowers--of the Lowcountry. Ongoing - "Art and Artists of South Carolina: David Drake, Jasper Johns, William H. Johnson, and Grainger McKoy". The contributions of South Carolina artists to our culture are as varied and rich as the stories of the artists themselves. The GCMA is proud to dedicate an entire gallery to the accomplishments of four of the nation's greatest artists, each of whom has called South Carolina home. Admission: Free. Hours: Wed.-Sat., 10am-6pm and Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 864/271-7570 or at (www.gcma.org).

Lipscomb Gallery, South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities, 15 University St., Greenville. Ongoing - We feature several exhibitions throughout each year - our own students and faculty, plus many guest artists. Thompson Gallery, Thomas Anderson Roe Art Building, Furman University, Greenville. Jan. 22 - Feb. 22 - Featuring an exhibit of works by Laura Tanner Graham, assistant professor of art in the School of Art at the University of Arizona. A reception including a talk with the artist is set for Feb. 4, from 6-7:30pm in the Roe Art Building. Tanner Graham's work references historical socio-political events to probe the contradictions between perceived and experienced narratives in contemporary Western society. Implementing appropriated and invented imagery, she says her work "exposes the unceasing current of systemic colonialism." Hours: M-F, 9am-5pm. Contact: 864/294-2074.

ALTERNATE ART SPACES - Greenville Centre Stage Theatre Gallery, 501 River Street, Greenville. Through Jan. 4 - "West Greenville Fauna: Kate Furman". This series of mixed media drawings tells stories. It serves as a sketchbook, or journal, relying on mark-making, line and whimsy to highlight our simple moments and interactions. Each intimate image invites you in to explore a quiet moment in appreciation of our everyday lives. Jan. 11 - Mar. 1 - "Mid-Century Moods," featuring works by Sarah Farrar. A reception will be held on Jan. 11, from 6:30-9pm. The exhibit is inspired by mid-century modern style. The art. The furniture. The fashion. It was a time when the design movement was explosive. The work included in this exhibition explores new paths of movement while referencing the divergent patterns of the mid-century era. Ongoing - Featuring works by visual art members of MAC. Exhibits are offered in collaboration with the Metropolitan Arts Council. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 2-6pm & 2 hr. prior to shows. Contact: MAC at 864/467-3132 or at (www.greenvillearts.com).
