Woolworth Walk in Asheville, NC, will present the exhibit Adornment & Paws, featuring paintings by Angela Alexander and jewelry by Carol Eder-Smith, now through the New Year. Work by Angela Alexander, on view at the Flood Gallery in Asheville, NC, Dec. 1 - 27, “Travelers” is a group exhibition of photographs by Maureen Robinson, on view from Dec. 1, 5 - 8pm. (www.randolphartsguild.com) 4 Exhibition”. The exhibition will address the legacy of the world’s most acclaimed inventor of the 20th century and a visionary role model for a new generation of artists, thinkers and problem-solvers in the 21st century. The show will represent Fuller’s own ideas and inventions through a selection from “Nontree: Twelve Around One,” a portfolio of screenprints published by the Carl Solyk Gallery, which include images and schematics of Fuller’s projects and inventions. The exhibition will also represent a new generation of Fuller-inspired thinkers and artists by featuring winning projects from the first five years of The Buckminster Fuller Challenge (BFC), an annual international design challenge awarding $100,000 to support the development and implementation of a strategy that effectively addresses one of the world’s most pressing problems. A selection of previous winners and projects from each of the Challenge Winners will be chosen for the show by curator Elizabeth Thompson, at the International Design Center (www.ictdesigncenter.com), a Space dedicated to exploring the history and legacy of the world’s most effective experimental educational community, Black Mountain College. Hours: Wed.-Sat., noon-4pm or by appt. Contact: 828-336-8448 or at (www.blackmountaincollege.org). Woolworth Walk in Asheville, NC, will present the exhibit Adornment & Paws, featuring paintings by Angela Alexander and jewelry by Carol Eder-Smith, now through the New Year. Work by Angela Alexander, on view at the Flood Gallery in Asheville, NC, Dec. 1 - 27, “Travelers” is a group exhibition of photographs by Maureen Robinson, on view from Dec. 1, 5 - 8pm. (www.randolphartsguild.com) 4 Exhibition”. The exhibition will address the legacy of the world’s most acclaimed inventor of the 20th century and a visionary role model for a new generation of artists, thinkers and problem-solvers in the 21st century. The show will represent Fuller’s own ideas and inventions through a selection from “Nontree: Twelve Around One,” a portfolio of screenprints published by the Carl Solyk Gallery, which include images and schematics of Fuller’s projects and inventions. The exhibition will also represent a new generation of Fuller-inspired thinkers and artists by featuring winning projects from the first five years of The Buckminster Fuller Challenge (BFC), an annual international design challenge awarding $100,000 to support the development and implementation of a strategy that effectively addresses one of the world’s most pressing problems. A selection of previous winners and projects from each of the Challenge Winners will be chosen for the show by curator Elizabeth Thompson, at the International Design Center (www.ictdesigncenter.com), a Space dedicated to exploring the history and legacy of the world’s most effective experimental educational community, Black Mountain College. Hours: Wed.-Sat., noon-4pm or by appt. Contact: 828-336-8448 or at (www.blackmountaincollege.org). Woolworth Walk in Asheville, NC, will present the exhibit Adornment & Paws, featuring paintings by Angela Alexander and jewelry by Carol Eder-Smith, now through the New Year. Work by Angela Alexander, on view at the Flood Gallery in Asheville, NC, Dec. 1 - 27, “Travelers” is a group exhibition of photographs by Maureen Robinson, on view from Dec. 1, 5 - 8pm. (www.randolphartsguild.com) 4 Exhibition”. The exhibition will address the legacy of the world’s most acclaimed inventor of the 20th century and a visionary role model for a new generation of artists, thinkers and problem-solvers in the 21st century. The show will represent Fuller’s own ideas and inventions through a selection from “Nontree: Twelve Around One,” a portfolio of screenprints published by the Carl Solyk Gallery, which include images and schematics of Fuller’s projects and inventions. The exhibition will also represent a new generation of Fuller-inspired thinkers and artists by featuring winning projects from the first five years of The Buckminster Fuller Challenge (BFC), an annual international design challenge awarding $100,000 to support the development and implementation of a strategy that effectively addresses one of the world’s most pressing problems. A selection of previous winners and projects from each of the Challenge Winners will be chosen for the show by curator Elizabeth Thompson, at the International Design Center (www.ictdesigncenter.com), a Space dedicated to exploring the history and legacy of the world’s most effective experimental educational community, Black Mountain College. Hours: Wed.-Sat., noon-4pm or by appt. Contact: 828-336-8448 or at (www.blackmountaincollege.org). Woolworth Walk in Asheville, NC, will present the exhibit Adornment & Paws, featuring paintings by Angela Alexander and jewelry by Carol Eder-Smith, now through the New Year. Work by Angela Alexander, on view at the Flood Gallery in Asheville, NC, Dec. 1 - 27, “Travelers” is a group exhibition of photographs by Maureen Robinson, on view from Dec. 1, 5 - 8pm. (www.randolphartsguild.com) 4 Exhibition”. The exhibition will address the legacy of the world’s most acclaimed inventor of the 20th century and a visionary role model for a new generation of artists, thinkers and problem-solvers in the 21st century. The show will represent Fuller’s own ideas and inventions through a selection from “Nontree: Twelve Around One,” a portfolio of screenprints published by the Carl Solyk Gallery, which include images and schematics of Fuller’s projects and inventions. The exhibition will also represent a new generation of Fuller-inspired thinkers and artists by featuring winning projects from the first five years of The Buckminster Fuller Challenge (BFC), an annual international design challenge awarding $100,000 to support the development and implementation of a strategy that effectively addresses one of the world’s most pressing problems. A selection of previous winners and projects from each of the Challenge Winners will be chosen for the show by curator Elizabeth Thompson, at the International Design Center (www.ictdesigncenter.com), a Space dedicated to exploring the history and legacy of the world’s most effective experimental educational community, Black Mountain College. Hours: Wed.-Sat., noon-4pm or by appt. Contact: 828-336-8448 or at (www.blackmountaincollege.org). Woolworth Walk in Asheville, NC, will present the exhibit Adornment & Paws, featuring paintings by Angela Alexander and jewelry by Carol Eder-Smith, now through the New Year. Work by Angela Alexander, on view at the Flood Gallery in Asheville, NC, Dec. 1 - 27, “Travelers” is a group exhibition of photographs by Maureen Robinson, on view from Dec. 1, 5 - 8pm. (www.randolphartsguild.com) 4 Exhibition”. The exhibition will address the legacy of the world’s most acclaimed inventor of the 20th century and a visionary role model for a new generation of artists, thinkers and problem-solvers in the 21st century. The show will represent Fuller’s own ideas and inventions through a selection from “Nontree: Twelve Around One,” a portfolio of screenprints published by the Carl Solyk Gallery, which include images and schematics of Fuller’s projects and inventions. The exhibition will also represent a new generation of Fuller-inspired thinkers and artists by featuring winning projects from the first five years of The Buckminster Fuller Challenge (BFC), an annual international design challenge awarding $100,000 to support the development and implementation of a strategy that effectively addresses one of the world’s most pressing problems. A selection of previous winners and projects from each of the Challenge Winners will be chosen for the show by curator Elizabeth Thompson, at the International Design Center (www.ictdesigncenter.com), a Space dedicated to exploring the history and legacy of the world’s most effective experimental educational community, Black Mountain College. Hours: Wed.-Sat., noon-4pm or by appt. Contact: 828-336-8448 or at (www.blackmountaincollege.org). Woolworth Walk in Asheville, NC, will present the exhibit Adornment & Paws, featuring paintings by Angela Alexander and jewelry by Carol Eder-Smith, now through the New Year. Work by Angela Alexander, on view at the Flood Gallery in Asheville, NC, Dec. 1 - 27, “Travelers” is a group exhibition of photographs by Maureen Robinson, on view from Dec. 1, 5 - 8pm. (www.randolphartsguild.com) 4 Exhibition”. The exhibition will address the legacy of the world’s most acclaimed inventor of the 20th century and a visionary role model for a new generation of artists, thinkers and problem-solvers in the 21st century. The show will represent Fuller’s own ideas and inventions through a selection from “Nontree: Twelve Around One,” a portfolio of screenprints published by the Carl Solyk Gallery, which include images and schematics of Fuller’s projects and inventions. The exhibition will also represent a new generation of Fuller-inspired thinkers and artists by featuring winning projects from the first five years of The Buckminster Fuller Challenge (BFC), an annual international design challenge awarding $100,000 to support the development and implementation of a strategy that effectively addresses one of the world’s most pressing problems. A selection of previous winners and projects from each of the Challenge Winners will be chosen for the show by curator Elizabeth Thompson, at the International Design Center (www.ictdesigncenter.com), a Space dedicated to exploring the history and legacy of the world’s most effective experimental educational community, Black Mountain College. Hours: Wed.-Sat., noon-4pm or by appt. Contact: 828-336-8448 or at (www.blackmountaincollege.org). Woolworth Walk in Asheville, NC, will present the exhibit Adornment & Paws, featuring paintings by Angela Alexander and jewelry by Carol Eder-Smith, now through the New Year. Work by Angela Alexander, on view at the Flood Gallery in Asheville, NC, Dec. 1 - 27, “Travelers” is a group exhibition of photographs by Maureen Robinson, on view from Dec. 1, 5 - 8pm. (www.randolphartsguild.com) 4 Exhibition”. The exhibition will address the legacy of the world’s most acclaimed inventor of the 20th century and a visionary role model for a new generation of artists, thinkers and problem-solvers in the 21st century. The show will represent Fuller’s own ideas and inventions through a selection from “Nontree: Twelve Around One,” a portfolio of screenprints published by the Carl Solyk Gallery, which include images and schematics of Fuller’s projects and inventions. The exhibition will also represent a new generation of Fuller-inspired thinkers and artists by featuring winning projects from the first five years of The Buckminster Fuller Challenge (BFC), an annual international design challenge awarding $100,000 to support the development and implementation of a strategy that effectively addresses one of the world’s most pressing problems. A selection of previous winners and projects from each of the Challenge Winners will be chosen for the show by curator Elizabeth Thompson, at the International Design Center (www.ictdesigncenter.com), a Space dedicated to exploring the history and legacy of the world’s most effective experimental educational community, Black Mountain College. Hours: Wed.-Sat., noon-4pm or by appt. Contact: 828-336-8448 or at (www.blackmountaincollege.org). Woolworth Walk in Asheville, NC, will present the exhibit Adornment & Paws, featuring paintings by Angela Alexander and jewelry by Carol Eder-Smith, now through the New Year. Work by Angela Alexander, on view at the Flood Gallery in Asheville, NC, Dec. 1 - 27, “Travelers” is a group exhibition of photographs by Maureen Robinson, on view from Dec. 1, 5 - 8pm. (www.randolphartsguild.com) 4 Exhibition”. The exhibition will address the legacy of the world’s most acclaimed inventor of the 20th century and a visionary role model for a new generation of artists, thinkers and problem-solvers in the 21st century. The show will represent Fuller’s own ideas and inventions through a selection from “Nontree: Twelve Around One,” a portfolio of screenprints published by the Carl Solyk Gallery, which include images and schematics of Fuller’s projects and inventions. The exhibition will also represent a new generation of Fuller-inspired thinkers and artists by featuring winning projects from the first five years of The Buckminster Fuller Challenge (BFC), an annual international design challenge awarding $100,000 to support the development and implementation of a strategy that effectively addresses one of the world’s most pressing problems. A selection of previous winners and projects from each of the Challenge Winners will be chosen for the show by curator Elizabeth Thompson, at the International Design Center (www.ictdesigncenter.com), a Space dedicated to exploring the history and legacy of the world’s most effective experimental educational community, Black Mountain College. Hours: Wed.-Sat., noon-4pm or by appt. Contact: 828-336-8448 or at (www.blackmountaincollege.org).