1873 Capt. James & Emma Holt White House, 213 South Main Street, 2 1/2 blocks off I85/40, exit#147, Graham. Home of the Alamance County Arts Council. Sisters Galleries, Through Apr. 23 - "Youth Show". May 1 - July 15 - "On the Other Side of the Lens: The Photography of Leonard Nimoy". A reception will be held on Apr. 30, from 6:30-8:30pm. Leonard Nimoy (1931-2015), famous for his iconic on-screen role as Star Trek's Captain Spock, was also a nationally acclaimed photographer. Beginning at an early age, experimenting with cameras and images as a young teenager, Nimoy went on to study photography at UCLA and later received an "artist in residence" position at the American Academy in Rome. This exhibition includes 43 photographs and does contain some nudity. Suntrust Gallery, Through Apr. 23 - Featuring an exhibit of works by C.J. Calvin. Ongoing - We are committed to shaping the cultural identity of Alamance County by making art a tangible presence in the lives of its citizens. We strive to enhance the quality of life by engaging people in a diverse array of art through the delivery of programming and education, and through the provision of facilities, advocacy, promotion, and funding. Ongoing - Picasso's Gift Shop, located in the Captain White House, promises unique finds of local, regional, and international art. The beautiful arts and craft items sold in the store help support the artist in the community. Featuring a wide variety of art, pottery and glass. Admission: free. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 9am-5pm. Contact: 336/226-4495 or at (www.artsalamance.com).

Asheville Area

Asheville Art Museum, 2 South Pack Square at Pack Place, Asheville. Apr. 18 - Aug. 16 - "Flourish: Selected Jewelry from the Daphne Farago Collection". The exhibition presents contemporary jewelry exemplifying the creativity in this specialized craft. Each diverse work of art speaks to history, ideas, craftsmanship, materials and process. Looking closely at each piece, visitors will see how the craft has evolved since the 1940s and explore themes such as teaching and education, sculpture and the body, and new materiality and production methods. Beginning in the late 1980s, Daphne Farago collected an impressive collection of museum-quality contemporary jewelry that surveyed studio jewelry practice by a wide range of artists from the 1940s to contemporary times. Her collection now resides at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, MA. We are grateful to the MFA for their loan of such exquisite examples of contemporary jewelry, which we are proud to present to our visitors. Through Apr. 12 - "Go Figure: Faces and Forms," an exhibition that brings together a selection of paintings, photographs, prints, drawings and contemporary craft that celebrate the human figure. Drawn from the Museum's world-class Permanent Collection, the faces and figures in this exhibition span decades and artistic styles. Families will appreciate the show's spirit of play with its inclusion of puppet figures and images of children, while artists and visitors of all ages will be delighted and inspired by the range of expression given to the human form in the 20th and 21st centuries. Through May 2 - "The Order of Things—60 Years of Paintings and Drawings," featuring a retrospective of John Heliker's paintings and drawings in an exhibition that charts the career of a significant American artist and offers an insight into the creative process of an artist whose career spanned seven decades of the "American Century." Heliker (1909–2000) was an adept draftsman and accomplished painter who developed a highly personal and expressive approach to drawing during the Works Progress Administration (WPA) years. His early drawings and sketches are comparable to those of his contemporaries, including Ben Shahn and Philip Evergood. Gallery Six, Through July 12 - "Keep All You Wish: The Photographs of Hugh Mangum," curated by Sarah Stacke. Inside or outside his photo studio, Hugh Mangum (1877–1922) created an atmosphere—respectful and often playful—in which hundreds of men, women and children genuinely revealed themselves. Keep All You Wish: The Photographs of Hugh Mangum features a selection of images of early 20th century Southern society that show personalities as immediate as if they were taken yesterday. Born and raised in Durham, NC, Mangum began establishing studios and working as an itinerant photographer in the early 1890s, traveling by rail through North Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia. Appleby Memorial Foundation Gallery, Through June 14 - "Jack Tworokov: Beyond Black Mountain, Selected Works From 1952-1982". A founding member of the New York School, Jack Tworokov (1900–1982) is regarded as one of the great American artists of the 20th century, along with Willem de Kooning, Philip Guston, Jackson Pollock and Franz Kline. Kline's gestural painting of the 1950s formed the basis for the Abstract Expressionist movement in America. Ongoing - "Sol LeWitt: Creating Place, Wall Drawing #618." Sol LeWitt (1928-2007) was born in Hartford, Connecticut. As a pioneer of conceptual art, he has had a major influence on 20th century American art. Ongoing - "Community: Sharon Loudon". The second work in the Museum's Artworks Project Space, Sharon Loudon's innovative installation Community is a continued conversation based on a series of work that she started in 2013 that traces its path through installation, animation, painting and drawing. In each genre, her gestures create an implication of dance—movement and energy—transposed against the resistance of fixed squares and rectangles of color. Admission: Yes. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Fri. till 8pm & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 828/253-3227 or at (www.ashevilleart.org).

Asheville Gallery of Art, Ltd., 16 College Street, Asheville. Apr. 1 - 30 - "Art of the Angle," featuring works by Bill Cole. A reception will be held on Apr. 3, from 5-8pm. The exhibit celebrates the art hidden away in everyday buildings and structures. "I've tried to capture my feelings when I glance at scenes and realize that there are pieces of art in plain sight all around me. Most often, what catches my eye is a small part of a much larger scene," says Cole. Ongoing - Featuring original works of art by 28 local artists in oils, acrylics, watercolor, pastel, encaustic, and

The North Carolina Arboretum, Milepost 393, Blue Ridge Parkway, 100 Frederick Law Olmsted Way, Asheville. Through Apr. 19 - "Seeing with New Eyes: Photography by Nature Photographer Sharon Mammoser". Mammoser has spent her lifetime perfecting the art of seeing with new eyes and although she enjoys photographing every aspect of the natural world, she has a special fondness for highlighting ordinary subjects. "There is so much beauty in our world," she says, "but so much of it is overlooked. People notice the grand sweeping vistas, the colorful sunsets, the towering mountains and still lakes, but don't see the tiny wonders hidden in the subtle details of ordinary scenes. I love the challenge of dissecting the landscape to find the 'gems' that I can extract and feature in an artistic way." Ongoing - The Asheville Quilt Guild features a permanent, rotating quilt exhibit at Arboretum's Education Center. Visitors can also enjoy the Arboretum's Quilt Garden year-round, with plantings and pat-
