

CURTIS R. HARLEY
ART GALLERY

PROCESS

(noun) a series of actions taken in order to achieve a particular end.

ARTISTS RECEPTION: APRIL 7, 7:00 P.M.

2015
April 7 to May 1

Senior Showcase

Amanda Chapman
Darion Roland
Emily Powell
Ian Curtis
Justin Reid
Sarah Garber
Tevin Gilliam
Tobi Hill

EXHIBITION EXTENDED!

April 28 – May 9

PORTFOLIO REVIEW @ Upstate Gallery On Main
172 E. Main St. Spartanburg, SC
Reception-April 30, 6:00-8:00 P.M.

The USC Upstate Visual Arts Program includes Bachelor of Arts programs in:
Art Studio (graphic design emphasis)
Art Education
Art History (minor)

Harley Gallery:

The Gallery, located on the first floor of the Humanities & Performing Arts Center, is free and open to the public from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Mon.-Fri.

To learn more:

Find Us Online:

www.uscupstate.edu/harleygallery

f curtisrharleyartgallery

t @HarleyArtGallry

Or Contact:

Mark Flowers
Gallery Coordinator
(864) 503-5848
mflowers@uscupstate.edu

Jane Nodine
Gallery Director
(864) 503-5838
jnodine@uscupstate.edu

UPSTATE

University of South Carolina Upstate

www.uscupstate.edu
(864) 503 - 5000

West Main Artists Co-op

continued from Page 5

Duncan is a painter and printmaker who is a member of West Main Artists Co-op in Spartanburg, and also a member of The Printshop in Greenville, SC. His work has an immense amount of variety. This past year, his diligence and experimentation has left him with a body of work that is quite impactful. This is evident in his upcoming show. The pieces exhibited deal with the search of spirituality from religious ideas and principles, the duality of paralyzing fear and indifferent acceptance of our own personal mortality, and the ludicrous things we do, while alive, to distract our minds from the inevitable.

Duncan is a native of Spartanburg county, who moved away to pursue a career in tattooing and has been back since 2008. Having no formal art education, Duncan declines the notion that he is a "self-taught artist", claiming, "We write our stories in our minds with experience, and without all the people I've crossed paths with throughout the years, I would have unfortunately missed all the marks".

We hope you make time to join us for the opening of this fantastic show, as it will be a wonderful view for anyone interested in the new and obscure.

The West Main Artists Co-op is located on West Main Street in Spartanburg; just eight blocks from downtown's Morgan Square. This program is supported in part by The Arts Partnership of Greater Spar-

Work by Addam Duncan
Spartanburg, its donors, the County and City of Spartanburg and the South Carolina Arts Commission which receives support from the National Endowment for the Arts and the John and Susan Bennett Memorial Arts Fund of the Coastal Community Foundation of South Carolina.

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, call the Co-op at 864/804-6501 or visit (www.westmainartists.org).

artworks by 4 regional artists. The show includes a variety of media, including paintings, prints, drawings, and a sculpture installation by Larry Millard of Athens, GA. Millard's installation is a large, interactive, walk-through piece that accounts for all of the senses, including smell.

Work by Larry Millard

Nine, color drenched oil paintings based on Bruce Nellsmith's trips to Southern France and the Mediterranean depict the impressive falaise (limestone cliffs) found along the coast near Cassis, France. Nellsmith is from Edisto Beach, SC.

Marjorie Huwa's oil paintings subtly

Work by Bruce Nellsmith

flirt with Surrealistic motifs and collagraph prints by Paula Riddle examine the role of texture in the graphic arts.

Huwa is from Prosperity, SC, and Paula Riddle is from Newberry, SC.

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, call Briles Lever, Gallery Coordinator, Professor of Art at Spartanburg Methodist College at 864/587-4279.

Spartanburg Methodist College Features Works by Marjorie Huwa, Larry Millard, Bruce Nellsmith, and Paula Riddle

Spartanburg Methodist College in Spartanburg, SC, is presenting an exhibit of works by Marjorie Huwa, Larry Millard, Bruce Nellsmith, and Paula Riddle, on view in the Ellis Hall Gallery, through May 15, Page 6 - Carolina Arts, April 2015

2015. All four artists will be participating in a gallery talk on Apr. 14, at 5:30pm, followed by a reception from 5-7pm.

The exhibition features 25 recent

continued above on next column to the right

West Main Artists Co-op in Spartanburg, SC, Celebrates Fifth Year with Past & Current Members

West Main Artists Co-op in downtown Spartanburg, SC, is celebrating its fifth anniversary with a Past Members Show and a Current Member's Show, on view through Apr. 11, 2015.

The West Main Artists Co-op was organized in the fall of 2009 and opened to the public in the spring of 2010. It is a non-profit all-inclusive arts center dedicated to presenting quality exhibitions, performances and educational programs. Its primary mission is to provide affordable studio/working/performance space in a variety of affordable sizes and prices. WMAC's website has information on studios, prices, and the application process.

WMAC is located in a 20,000 square foot

Work by Tipton Jones-Boiter

building that was formerly the West Main Baptist Church. It is home to over 50 visual

continued on Page 8