José Lerma, Untitled #1, 2007, AP2 from 20 + 2AP Lithography, woodcut on Rives BFK and handmade paper

CAM Raleigh, 409 W. Martin Street, between Harrington and West streets, Raleigh. Main Gallery, May 19 - Sept. 2 - "The Credentialist," by José Lerma is a Museum premiere of newly commissioned works. Lerma currently lives and works in New York and Chicago, where he is a faculty member at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. Lerma creates intricate installations that combine painting and non-traditional materials such as reflective fabrics and commercial carpet, relying on a compendium of mediums, references, and elements that combine his personal history and extensive academic accolades with his awareness of social history. The Credentialist is a new body of 18 artworks commissioned for the main gallery at CAM Raleigh highlighting his ability to combine and collapse facets of history from his personal viewpoint. Central to the exhibition is the notion of rising and falling, particularly the precipitous demise of great historical figures. Independent Weekly Gallery, Through May 28 - "Close One," featuring works by Chris Bradley. Predicated on common desires, like maximum leisure time and the thirst for travel, the exhibition Close One celebrates idiosyncrasies found in our average daily monotony. Included in the exhibition are spoofs and spin-offs of ordinary, blue-collar subjects that hint at potential fictional histories behind the work. What you encounter is a duality of play of reproductions where material specificity and trompe l'oeil painting put authenticity to question; and the byproduct of inebriated reverie and wishful thinking are front and center. Hours: Mon., 11am-6:30pm; Wed.-Fri., 11am-6:30pm; Sat. & Sun., noon-5pm; and 1st & 3rd Fri., open till 9pm. Contact: 919/513-0946 or at (<http://camraleigh.org>).

North Carolina Museum of Art, 2110 Blue Ridge Road, Raleigh. Through May 27 - "Presence/Absence". The photographs in this exhibition, all from the North Carolina Museum of Art's permanent collection, reveal the constant mutual exchange between an environment and its inhabitants. Each image in Presence/Absence strongly implies human presence, even though we do not see any figures. The absence of people leaves an empty loneliness in some of the works; abandoned buildings, forgotten landscapes, and discarded possessions hint at the histories of former residents. In other works absence is just the moment before presence, a hopeful promise of a human connection soon to come. A cold glass of milk temptingly awaits its consumer, or a welcoming light beckons in the distance, allowing us to imagine the next piece of the story. East Building, Meymandi Exhibition Gallery, Through July 29 - "El Anatsui: When I Last Wrote to You about Africa". Of the 61 works, the exhibition includes eight spectacular metal wall sculptures in the same style as the NCMA's own stunning El Anatsui sculpture in West Building, "Lines that

The exhibition celebrates McIver's prodigious work from the past decade, highlighting her renowned, emotive self-portraits and portraits of her family. "Beverly McIver's work is remarkable in its own right, but the timing of 'Reflections' with 'Rembrandt in America' is particularly illuminating, as both exhibitions examine self-portraiture in some way," said Jennifer Dasal, curator of the exhibition. "McIver's portraits of herself and her family offer an opportunity for visitors to experience her world view as an African American, a caretaker, a daughter, and a woman." West Building, Ongoing - Featuring 10 additional sculptures by the celebrated French artist Rodin on loan from Iris Cantor's private collection. Ongoing - "John James Audubon's The Birds of America". The state has owned this treasured volume since 1848, but it has never been exhibited. Ongoing - The North Carolina Museum of Art has an outstanding permanent collection of more than 5,000 objects spanning antiquity to the present day.
