Work by Charles Williams

Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum Gallery, The Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Gallery, Through May 21 - "2017 MFA Thesis Exhibition". This exhibition features new work by seven MFA candidates in the UNCG School of Art: Caroline Bugby, Codey Gallas, Kate Gordon, Julia Caston, Joyce Watkins King, Sherrill Roland, and Charles Williams. Reflecting a variety of studio areas, their work represents the culmination of each student's unique experience at UNCG. The exhibition demonstrates the research, reflection, experimentation, critical thinking, and artistic skills honed by these artists while in the program. The Bob & Lissa Shelley McDowell Gallery, May 21 - Sept. 3 - "Art on Paper 2017: The 44th Exhibition". The exhibition celebrates contemporary art in which the use of paper—either as surface or material—is a primary concern. Longstanding support from xpedx (formerly the Dillard Paper Company) and, today, the Dillard Fund has allowed the Weatherspoon to acquire work from each "Art on Paper" exhibition since 1965. This significant support has fostered the growth of the Weatherspoon's nationally recognized Dillard Collection of Art on Paper. Today its holdings number some 600 works of art. Following a slate of exhibitions timed to celebrate the Weatherspoon's 75th anniversary, this biennial exhibition will shift seasons and open in May of 2017. As with "Art on Paper" 2014, the installation will include several works by each artist, rather than a single representative piece. This approach aims to provide greater context for individual artworks and a broader understanding of each artist's practice. Space limitations will again make the selection process highly competitive. Gallery 6, Through June 4 - "Minimalism/Post-Minimalism". Works in this exhibition explore the development of and stylistic variety within Minimalism, as well as its continued influence on visual art today. Beginning in the 1960s, many artists started to question the importance of having an object

refer to something beyond itself or of it being executed by the artist's own hand. For example, Sol LeWitt's wall piece displays the Minimalists' preference for the impersonal, geometric, and modular. In addition, by hanging it on the wall, LeWitt questioned and compressed the heretofore division between two- and three-dimensional work, a concept later explored by Allan McCollum in his plaster "paintings." Still other artists such as Fred Sandback and Richard Haas, and later Emil Lukas and Peter Alexander, investigated non-art materials like spring steel, paper cups, and resin. Rounding out the exhibition are works by Agnes Martin, Eva Hesse, Ellsworth Kelly, Sean Scully, and Christopher French, among others. The Gregory D. Ivy Gallery and The Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, Through Aug. 6 - "Affinities & Variations". This exhibition pairs paintings in the museum's collection to show visual affinities in structure, theme, technique, emphasis or palette, as well as distinct variations between the two works. While none of the artists were responding to each other's work, it is fascinating to see how they tackled similar issues in their own personal way, sometimes decades apart. Visitors will be challenged to look closely at each pairing and consider to what extent the paintings cohere and/or vary. Atrium and Lobbies - Featuring works of art complementing current gallery exhibitions which are rotated in the atrium and public areas throughout both floors of the gallery. Tom Otterness' site-specific work, "The Frieze" is permanently installed in the atrium. Sculpture Courtyard - Featuring selections of American sculpture from 1900 to the present from the Weatherspoon Collection and on loan works from contemporary artists. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue., Wed. & Fri., 10am-5pm, Thur., 10am to 9pm and Sat. & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 336/334-5770 or at (<http://weatherspoon.uncg.edu/>).
