Highlands

The Bascom, a center for the visual arts, 323 Franklin Rd., covered bridge entrance at the end of Main Street, Highlands. Loft Gallery, Through June 9 - "Guerra de la Paz - Intertwined". Driven by a combination of tradition and experimentation, Guerra de la Paz applies an essential sense of duality to lush, multi-layered artworks. They find inspiration in the familiarity of ready-made – whose archaeological qualities and encapsulated energies evoke the significance of the human footprint and reveal psychosocial and environmental messages – while exploring themes with cultural and historical relevance. The Joel Gallery, Through July 23 - "Julyan Davis: New Paintings of the South". Julyan Davis is an English-born artist who has painted the American South for over twenty five years. He received his art training at the Byam Shaw School of Art in London. Davis now lives in Asheville, North Carolina. His work is exhibited internationally, and is in many public and private collections. Adult Education Gallery, Through June 11 - "The Bascom's 2017 Photography Club Annual Member Exhibition". The Bascom Photography Club is a creative community that rides on the passions of professionals, amateurs, teachers, and students of the photographic medium. The exhibition was open to all photography club participants. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm. Contact: 828/526-4949 or at (www.thebascom.org).

High Point

Work by Gina Franco

Theatre Art Galleries, High Point Theatre, 220 East Commerce Avenue, High Point. Main and Hallway Galleries, June 1 - Aug. 4 - "URBAN EXPRESSIONS". A reception will be held on June 1, from 5:30-7:30pm. Public art is exactly that, art in public spaces. The term "public art" may conjure images of historic bronze statues of a soldier on horseback in a park. Today, public art can take a wide range of forms, sizes, and scales—and can be temporary or permanent. Public art can include murals, sculpture, memorials, integrated architectural or landscape architectural work, community art, digital new media, and even performances and festivals! Upstairs Gallery, June 1 - Aug. 4 - "Summerball: a month with the Torrington Twisters". A reception will be held on June 1, from 5:30-7:30pm. In 2005, Laurie and Blair Pessemer, fine art painters, set out to follow a baseball team during the summer. They found the Torrington Twisters, an NECBL team, not far from where Laurie grew up. The Pessemerians spent 30 days documenting the team in paintings, sketches and writing. Kaleidoscope Youth Gallery, June 1 - Aug. 4 - "Annual Middle School Art Exhibition". Hours: Tue.-Sat., noon-5pm. Contact: 336/887-2137 or at (www.tagart.org).

North Carolina Museum of Art, 2110 Blue Ridge Road, Raleigh. East Building, Level B, Video Gallery, Through Aug. 13 - "Quayola: Pleasant Places". The exhibition consists of a series of digital paintings exploring the boundary between representation and abstraction. Inspired by the work of Vincent van Gogh, U.K.-based artist Quayola traveled to Provence, France, 125 years after Van Gogh famously painted there. As a nod to that painter's expressionist style, Quayola's own Provence landscapes morph from realistic images of windblown trees to abstracted scenes of color and texture, as the natural forms begin to bleed into one another in swirls of disintegrating pixels. Simultaneously, the audio of rustling leaves and wind becomes distorted and abstracted. East Building, Level B, Julian T. Baker Jr. Photography Gallery, Through Sept. 3 - "Looking South: Photographs by Eudora Welty". This exhibition features a portfolio of 18 photographs by the acclaimed American novelist and short story writer Eudora Welty (1909-2001), produced by the Mississippi Department of Archives and History in 1992 (with Welty selecting the images and printing techniques) to represent the range of her photographs from the 1930s and early 1940s. Welty's iconic images of the South during this time bring to mind the photographs of Helen Levitt, Dorothea Lange, and Walker
