community to shelter in place until the end of April. Even if restrictions are lifted by June, there is no clear way to properly support the tour and its artists through advertising, community outreach events, and promotion. We are currently working as a staff to develop other ways to support our community of artists while our doors are closed, and also once we reopen. We are optimistic that we will get to see you again soon! Our winter tour is still scheduled for December 4-6. Thank you for your understanding and your recognition that sheltering in place is the most important action we can take as a community to keep each other safe. Thank you for your continued support. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10:30am-5pm. Contact: 828/682-7215 or at (www.toeriverarts.org).

Wilmington

Louise Wells Cameron Art Museum, @ intersection of Independence Blvd. & South 17th Street, Wilmington. Now - "The Eye Learns: Modernist Prints from the Louis Belden Collection," is now online. San Francisco art collector Louis Belden gave his art collection, the gift of his lifetime, to the CAM community. Share in his passions for art, for collecting, for learning, and for giving back in part one of this exhibition to go online. These works offer a range of expression, experimentation, and expansion of the terrain of postwar modernism and post-modernism. You can visit the exhibition here at (https://cameronomuseum.org/index.php?c=the_eye_learns). As Louis fervently believed and practiced, "Art is not stagnant. It grows and grows. To learn, you work at it with your eyes and your mind. And your heart." Join Executive Director Anne Brennan in our next episode of #ConnectwithCAM as she discusses Mel Chin's beautiful work "The Structure of Things Given and Held" on CAM's grounds. Enjoy it here at (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pq5hCK1ES7o&feature=youtu.be>). Pancoe Art Education Center, Exhibition Cases, Ongoing - View some of the Seagrove and contemporary pottery from the museum's permanent collection in the cases. Work by Marybeth Bradbury

Wilmington Art Association, Wilmington. Through July 31 - "2020 WAA Spring Show and Sale". This was the show that would have taken place during Wilmington's annual Azalea Festival, the 38th annual juried show for the WAA. We were all so disappointed when our annual show and sale had to be canceled because of the covid-19 pandemic. Our show committee had worked so hard and we were only a week away from opening. Rather than keep everyone in suspense until events became more settled, we heeded the suggestions that we publish the show. So visit the show on a portion of our new website and share with all your friends. In an effort to support members of our community who need help with basic needs, the WAA is donating 10% of the Spring Show sales to Mother Hubbard's Cupboard in Wilmington. You can view the show at this link (<http://wilmingtongallery.org/welcome-2/>). Just pick categories from the menu at the top of the page.

Reynolda House Museum of American Art, Reynolda Road, Winston-Salem. Mary and Charlie Babcock Wing Gallery, Through June

21 - "Tiffany Glass: Painting with Color and Light". Reynolda's Spring 2020 exhibition is organized by the Neustadt Collection of Tiffany Glass in Queens, NY. The first exhibition of its kind at Reynolda, it includes five windows, twenty-two lamps, and several displays showing how Tiffany glass was manufactured, how his lamps were assembled, and how collectors today can distinguish between authentic lamps and forgeries. As a painter, Louis C. Tiffany was captivated by the interplay of light and color, and this fascination found its most spectacular expression in his glass "paintings." Using new and innovative techniques and materials, Tiffany Studios created leaded-glass windows and lampshades in vibrant colors and richly varied patterns, textures, and opacities. Ongoing - Collection of 18th through 20th century art, sculpture, American art, and pottery.
