Years of American Design". Most chairs encountered throughout the day define themselves fairly simply—a place at the family table, a comfortable spot with a great view of the river, a seat of corporate power. When looking at the 44 chairs in the exhibit, however, there is much more to see than simple pieces of furniture. These works of art have compelling stories to tell about our national history, the evolution of American design and incredible artistry and craftsmanship. The exhibition provides audiences with a unique opportunity to see chair types that usually reside in private homes, withheld from public display. The American Chair Collection, the center of this exhibition, is a comprehensive private collection of iconic and historic chairs reaching back from the mid-1800s to pieces from today's studio movement. Mamie and Andrew Treadway, Jr. Gallery, Through Sept. 16 - "Born from Fire: American Studio Glass from the Collection," featuring more than 30 examples of glass made by leaders in the movement. In celebration of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the American Studio Glass Movement, the Columbia Museum of Art showcases this special exhibition. Galleries 5 & 6, Through July 29 - "Columbia Design League Selects". The exhibit is a complement installation to the nationally traveling exhibition, "The Art of Seating: 200 Years of American Design". Drawn solely from the design collection of the Columbia Museum of Art, "CDL Selects" contains over 60 exceptional examples of 20th-century design in a variety of media forms—seating furniture, tables, lamps, and related decorative arts; sculpture; industrial design and in a variety of media, including ceramics, glass, and metal. Board members of the membership affiliate, Columbia Design League, selected the objects and wrote the accompanying label copy, stating why it was selected as an example of good design. The exhibit is the first exhibition to focus extensively on CMA's design collection and is the first exhibition organized in collaboration with the Columbia Design League. Wachovia Education Gallery, Through Aug. 5 - "Sit Right Down". National Art Honors Society students display three dimensional design skills by creating model chairs while students in CMA's One Room School House program use a print making technique to design upholstery fabric. These 3D and 2D works make for an engaging exhibition on furniture design! Different chair designs are available for your sitting pleasure - tell us which one is your favorite with our interactive survey. Design your own chair at our young artist station and have a seat on a toadstool and read "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" in our reading nook. Program generously sponsored by the Hilliard Family Foundation, Colonial Life and Carla and Dibble Manning. BB&T Focus Gallery, Ongoing - "Southern Traditions," will showcase the richness and diversity of the Museum's collection of furniture, ceramics, silver, basketry, sculpture and paintings by artists native to, or active in, South Carolina and its surrounding states. Among the works on view will be fine silver made by Charleston and Columbia silversmiths; a sweet grass basket by Mary Jackson (SC, born 1945); wood carvings by Edgar Alexander McKillop (NC, 1879-1950); and paintings by Charles Fraser (SC, 1782-1860), Xanthus Russell Smith (SC, 1839-1929), William Harrison Scarborough (SC, 1812-1871), William Aiken Walker (SC, 1838-1921), among others. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. Admission: Yes, but there is no admission charge on Sun. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 11am-5pm; first Fri., till 8pm; Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., noon-5pm. Contact: 803/799-2810 or at (www.columbiamuseum.org).

McKissick Museum, University of South Carolina, USC Horseshoe, Columbia. Through July 27 - "Pisgah Forest and Nonconah: The Potteries of Walter B. Stephen". Stephen was a gifted designer and craftsman with a remarkable range. Through the artistic influence of his mother and his own curiosity, Stephen became known for his cameo wares and crystalline glazes. Stephen's "American Cameo" was inspired by early Americans, literature and ancient history similar to Wedgwood's Jasperware. The exhibition highlights 76 rare examples of Stephen's work, including the first pots he fired near Nonconah Creek in Tennessee to crystalline vessels produced near Asheville, NC. Through Aug. 24 - "A Sense of Place: McKissick Museum's 2012 Art Exhibition". With "a sense of place" as the focus of this year's gala art exhibition, McKissick Museum hopes to spark a conversation about the role art plays in creating a distinctive southern experience. To better tell the story of southern life, McKissick reached out to select artists in the region whose work explores the interface between culture and nature. As a result, the exhibition will feature works by over sixty accomplished artists who are shaping what it means to live in the south. All works on exhibition can be purchased at McKissick Museum's annual gala art sale on Friday, Aug. 24, 2012, with proceeds to benefit McKissick's exhibitions and programs. Ongoing - "Highlights from the Permanent Collections of McKissick Museum". Permanent - "Baruch Silver Collection," a collection of the Baruch family silver.
