Columbia Area

Columbia Museum of Art, Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia. Lipscomb Family Galleries, Through Sept. 13 - "From Marilyn to Mao: Andy Warhol's Famous Faces". The exhibition is a thematically-focused look at the artist's influential silkscreens and his interest in portraits. Andy Warhol (1928-1987) is central to the pop art movement and one of the best-known 20th-century American artists. "From Marilyn to Mao" uses 46 of Warhol's famous portraits to explore pop art's tenet of the cult of celebrity, the idea that pop culture adores the famous simply because they are famous. Warhol exploited society's collective obsession with fame like no artist before or after him. The exhibition celebrates the Mao suite, an anonymous gift to the CMA of the complete set of 10 silkscreens Warhol created in 1972 of Mao Zedong, chairman of the Communist Party of China (1949-1976). Mamie and William Andrew Treadway, Jr. Gallery 15, Through July 19 - "With Sponge, Brush and Stencil: Bunzlauer Pottery from the Collection of the CMA". Bunzlauer Pottery from the Collection of the Columbia Museum of Art is a colorful exhibition of 43 pieces of pottery created between the world wars in an area known as Bunzlauer in Eastern Germany (renamed Boleslawiec following the Polish annexation of the area in 1945). This popular style of pottery was hand-decorated with sponges, brushes, and stencils - intended for the average home, but celebrated for its colorful and inventive patterns. Artists drew inspiration from the Art Nouveau and Art Deco styles and decorated everyday wares like teapots, creamers, vases, and plates. Wells Fargo Education Gallery, Through Aug. 16 - "Culture Clash! Students Interpret Warhol". Works by students from the River Bluff High School 2D Design and Photography 1 classes inspired by the From Marilyn to Mao: Andy Warhol's Famous Faces exhibition. Christopher Stafford's 2D Design class included a hand-colored linocut, digitally-scanned mixed media, and spray-painted stencils on diverse surfaces. Sara McGregor's Photography 1 students studied Warhol's artwork, life, and fascination with fame. They followed his printmaking process starting with a photograph and developing it into a series of colorful screen prints giving the viewer a glimpse into the emotions of the subject through color and expression. These students not only saw Warhol's work as part of their project, but developed a real passion for his artwork. Caroline Guignard Community Gallery, Through July 26 - "Columbia Broadside Project," pairs artists and poets from Columbia and throughout South Carolina who work together to create an original "broadside," comprised of an original work of art and an original poem. The goal is to strengthen the arts community by helping poets and artists meet their peers, share ideas, and create new works of art. Opening party, reading, and concert on June 5. BB&T Focus Gallery, Ongoing - "Southern Traditions." will showcase the richness and diversity of the Museum's collection of furniture, ceramics, silver, basketry, sculpture and paintings by artists native to, or active in, South Carolina and its surrounding states. Among the works on view will be fine silver made by Charleston and Columbia silversmiths; a sweet grass basket by Mary Jackson (SC, born 1945); wood carvings by Edgar Alexander McKillop (NC, 1879-1950); and paintings by Charles Fraser (SC, 1782-1860), Xanthus Russell Smith (SC, 1839-1929), William Harrison Scarborough (SC, 1812-1871), William Aiken Walker (SC, 1838-1921), among others. Galleries 5 & 6, Ongoing - "Modern & Contemporary Art from the Collection". Celebrating some of the CMA's greatest hits, this exhibition features over 30 paintings, drawings, photographs and sculptures from the Museum's collection that have not been on view recently. It offers the visitor experiences both serious and sensual and is designed to both entertain and enlighten. Notable works included are by Jasper Johns, Howard Thomas, Sally Mann and Edward Ruscha, whose famous image of the Hollywood Hills (on view) has become a staple of the art world. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. Admission: Yes, but there is no admission charge on Sun. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 11am-5pm; first Fri., till 8pm; Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., noon-5pm. Contact: 803/799-2810 or at (www.columbiuseum.org).

McKissick Museum, University of South Carolina, USC Horseshoe, Columbia. 2nd floor North Gallery, Through Sept. 5 - "McKissick and You: Collecting What Matters". The exhibit highlights recent acquisitions in the permanent collection which showcase the multi-faceted mission of the museum. Utilizing the fine art, textiles, political, folk life, university history, and natural history collections, this exhibit explores the many ways material culture enhances appreciation of multiple aspects of a community's experience. 2nd floor South Gallery, Through July 25 - "Traditions, Change, and Celebration: Native Artists of the Southeast". This exhibition represents year two of McKissick's "Diverse Voices" series, which explores the vibrant traditions that help create and maintain the cultural landscape of South Carolina and the surrounding region. Each year the exhibit focuses on a specific theme or tradition. The South is home to a wide variety of deeply-rooted Native American tribal groups, each with their own dynamic history. The exhibition pays particular attention to five primary culture groups: Iroquoian, Muskogean, Algonquin, Mobilian and Siouan. Within these culture groups and spanning nine states, the traditions of a variety of tribes will be explored, including the Cherokee, Edisto, Choctaw, Catawba, Chickasaw, Seminole, Chitimacha, Pamunkey, Wassamasaw and Creek. Featuring the work of master artists within these communities, the exhibition explores how these artists are influenced by the world around them and how they influence their native communities through leadership and a dynamic sense of cultural identity. Ongoing - "Diverse Voices: Discovering Community Through Traditional Arts". Dedicated to the late George D. Terry, "Diverse Voices" explores deeply-rooted traditions that help create and maintain the cultural landscape of South Carolina and the surrounding region. Each year the exhibit will focus on a specific theme or tradition. Year one of "Diverse Voices" offers a comprehensive presentation of objects from the museum collection that represent the work of celebrated NEA National Heritage Fellows and Jean Laney Harris Folk Heritage Award recipients. Ongoing - "Highlights from the Permanent Collections of McKissick Museum". Permanent - "Baruch Silver Collection," a collection of the Baruch family silver. And, "Natural Curiosity: USC and the Evolution of Scientific Inquiry into the Natural World". Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm & Sat., 11am-3pm. Richland County Public Library, 1431 Assembly St., Columbia. Gallery at Main, Through Sept. 8 - "Re-Created by Kirkland Smith". Smith is a traditional painter who began creating contemporary assemblages using post-consumer materials as an evocative way to drive home the message of environmental responsibility. Through her work she challenges viewers to consider their consumer habits and has enjoyed working with children and adults in assemblage workshops. "We live in a disposable society and what we throw away says a lot about who we are, but what we choose to cherish and protect says even more in the end." Ongoing - Featuring 20 pieces of public art on permanent display. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-9pm; Sat, 9am-6pm; Sun, 2-6pm. Contact: 803/988-0886 or at (www.richland.lib.sc.us).

Work by Tyrone Geter

701 Center for Contemporary Art, 701 Whaley St., Columbia. Main Gallery, July 9 - Aug. 23 - "Tyrone Geter: BLACK!", curated by Edmund Barry Gaither, director and curator of the Museum of the National Center of Afro-American Artists, and consultant at the Museum of Fine Arts both in Boston. A reception will be held on July 9, from 7-9pm. Members, free; non-members, $5 suggested donation. The exhibit presents recent works by the artist who, after extensive travel, work and study in Africa, made South Carolina his home. Combining masterful draftsmanship with assemblage and installation elements, Geter has consistently produced a bold body of work that offers powerful perspectives on the black American experience. These come not only after one hundred and fifty years since the end of the Civil War and the passing of the 13th Amendment to the US Constitution but also in a period when we are asked to consider the value of black lives in today's contentious world. West side of the 701 Whaley building, Ongoing - "Herb Parker: Olympia Dialogue," featuring an outdoor, architectural installation by Charleston, SC, artist Herb Parker. His architectural structure is 10 feet tall, 34 feet long and 18 feet wide and made of rebar, oat straw, jute, bamboo, reed and mulch. Parker created the work during his May residency at 701 CCA with several volunteer assistants. "Olympia Dialogue" is 701 CCA's first commissioned public art work. Hours: Wed., 11am-8pm; Thur.-Sat., 11am-5pm & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 803/238-2351 or at (www.701cca.org).

SC State Museum, 301 Gervais St., Columbia. Through Sept. 7 - "Halsey 100," is a temporary exhibit that examines the work of important Charleston, SC, artist William Halsey in the 100th anniversary year of his birth. The exhibit includes original oil paintings that look into the important career of Halsey. His non-representational paintings were influenced by the Southern coastal light, his travels to South America and his hometown of Charleston. Halsey was a pioneer of contemporary art in the Palmetto State, helping pave the way for other contemporary artists. Through 2015 - "The Coming of the Civil War," will look at the origins of the disagreement between South Carolina and the federal government, beginning with the nullification crisis of 1832-33. The exhibit will be augmented by five more single-topic exhibits through the sesquicentennial war years (2011-2015) until the expansion space is filled. Through Feb. 7, 2016 - "Carolina Makers". The exhibition, presented by Time Warner Cable, celebrates local makers, artists and craftspeople from South Carolina who are producing handmade objects for people all over the world. This exhibition brings to light the important contributions by local makers that sometimes may go unrecognized. Some of the featured makers include instrument builders, furniture makers, metal workers and clothing designers. The Crescent Café, second floor mezzanine of the Museum. The house menu offers a variety of baked goods, juices, coffee, hot chocolate and tea. Lunchtime offerings include deli sandwiches and alternating daily soups, as well as grilled chicken salads and sandwiches. And let's not forget the house specialty: spectacular fudge, handmade on-site. Museum Hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Sun., 1-5pm. Admission: Yes. Contact: call 803/898-4921 or at (<http://scmuseum.org/>).
