Latin American Contemporary Art Projects (LaCa), 1429 Bryant Street, in the heart of the revitalized FreeMoreWest neighborhood, Charlotte. Through Sept. 13 - "Color and Form in Latin America." includes 50 paintings, pastels, drawings, sketches, and prints. The exhibition displays the works of five prolific Latin American artists, including Otto Apuy (Costa Rica), Rafa Fernández (Costa Rica), Wilfredo Lam (Cuba), Ricardo "Chino" Morales (Costa Rica), and Jesús Rafael Soto (Venezuela). Ongoing - LaCa Projects is a platform dedicated to the presentation, development, and promotion of Latin American art and culture within the United States. The gallery encourages cross-cultural dialogue by representing a small group of influential and thought-provoking contemporary, emerging and mid-career artists, as well as exhibiting a broader range of work by established and Master Latin American artists. The gallery, which has expertise in a number of different art media with a significant focus on paintings, will also be part of a larger planned expansion that includes open artist studios and a dining concept. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 1-5pm or by appt. Contact: Neely Verano at (neely@lacaprojects.com) or call 704/609-8487.

Levine Museum of the New South, 200 E. Seventh St., corner of College St & Seventh St., Charlotte. Through Aug. 4 - "Boots on the Ground: Charlotte Perspectives on the War in Iraq". It's been nearly a decade since US troops entered Baghdad. In April 2003, the ground phase of the War in Iraq began. In a new exhibit organized by Levine Museum of the New South, we invite you to look back at the conflict through the perspectives of five Charlotte residents. Ongoing - "Cotton Fields to Skyscrapers," featuring a permanent exhibition featuring interactive environments that trace the history of the New South from the end of the Civil War until today. Admission: Yes. Free on Sat. Parking: next door in Seventh Street Station. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., noon-5pm. Contact: 704/333-1887 or at (www.museumofthenewsouth.org).

Mint Museum Randolph, 2730 Randolph Road, Charlotte. Through Nov. 3 - "New Eyes on America: The Genius of Richard Caton Woodville". The exhibition features richly-painted depictions of daily life created during the transformative years prior to the American Civil War. During a tragically short career, the Baltimore-born and European-trained Richard Caton Woodville (1825-55) engaged with issues that dominated American society, including war, intergenerational communication, and new technologies such as the telegraph and penny press. Woodville was born of a prominent Baltimore family and trained in Düsseldorf, Germany. He conducted much of his professional career in Germany, France, and Great Britain. This is the first monographic Woodville exhibition since 1967. It premiered at The Walters Art Museum, which organized the exhibition, earlier this year. The exhibition includes 15 of Woodville's 16 known paintings, several of which have never been on view, as well as prints, illustrated books, and other related works of art to place his career in historical context. Ongoing - "American Glass". The nineteenth and early twentieth centuries represented a time of extraordinary growth for the American glass industry. Such companies as Boston & Sandwich Glass Company in Sandwich, MA; Steuben Glass Works in Corning, NY; and Libbey Glass Company in Toledo, OH, began operation and soon developed notable reputations for producing fashionable wares that were coveted by many middle- and upper-class consumers. "American Glass" showcases objects by these and other American glass companies, illustrating the variety of forms and styles that prevailed during this period. Glass-manufacturing techniques will be another focus of the exhibition, with representative examples of pressed, cut, blown, and molded glass. Nearly all of the works on view are from The Mint Museum's permanent collection of glass, which is second in size only to the ceramics collection in the museum's Decorative Arts holdings. Ongoing - "Arts of Africa". The African continent is remarkable in its geographic, social, political, and cultural diversity. This impressive diversity is reflected in the visual arts through a variety of media and forms including ceramics, masks, textiles, sculptures, prestige staffs, and shrines. With exceptional loans from private collectors and The Mint Museum's own collection of African Art, the museum is pleased to announce the expansion of its presentation of Arts of Africa, thereby providing visitors a more in-depth, meaningful, and exciting overview of African art. Through Jan. 12, 2014 - "Dior, Balmain, Saint Laurent: Elegance and Ease". The exhibit explores the designs of three major Parisian designers with selections from The Mint Museum's Fashion Collection, which celebrates its 40th anniversary this year. French fashion has long been and continues to form the foundation of global designs. Christian Dior (1905-1957) established Paris as the center of the world of modern haute couture. In the late 1940s, Dior's "New Look" fashions presented small, nipped-in waistslines above full skirts which emphasized the bust and hips in these silhouettes. He selected extravagant fabrics for his dresses and gowns, and his designs soon captured the attention of prominent clients from around the world. His innovations and designs, for decades thereafter, influenced women's fashions and the designers who created them. Known for the elegance and movement of his formal designs, Pierre Balmain (1914-1982) created fine, slim silhouettes for his tailored suits. Even today, Balmain's vintage gowns are highly sought after by fashionistas across the globe. Yves Saint Laurent (1936-2008) is recognized as one of the greatest names in fashion history, called "the most consistently celebrated and influential designer of the past twenty years" by fashion historian Caroline Rennolds Milbank. He was among the first to present ready-to-wear designs, including his famous tuxedo suits for women that became a symbol of fashionable ease. His formal and evening fashions as well as tailored suits display his talent and ability to create impressive directions in the world of haute couture and luxury fashion. Heritage Gallery, Ongoing - Feature works of art, archival documents, and photographs documenting the growth and evolution of the museum, from its beginnings as the original branch of the US Mint to its founding as an art museum to the present and beyond. Ongoing - "Art for the Millions: WPA Prints" and "Carolina Clay," featuring a display of colorful wares made between 1920 and 1950 as potters from NC adapted their works to a market economy. "Art of the United States," featuring contemporary works from the Mint's permanent collection, including works by Romare Bearden, Maud Gatewood, John Biggers, Juan Logan, Tarlton Blackwell, Radcliffe Bailey, Kojo Griffin, and others. "Art in the Americas," featuring paintings, precious metalwork, sculpture, furniture and decorative arts from the 17th through the 19th centuries illustrate the unique culture that emerged from the Spanish colonization of the Americas. Crosland Gallery - Featuring a presentation of portraits with many fascinating images presented. Rankin Gallery - Featuring a presentation of the Romare Bearden Collection, including two "new" Beardens. Harris and Crist Galleries - Featuring some contemporary works that are new to the collection or have not been seen for a while. Delhom Gallery, Ongoing - The European Collection of ceramic works. The Light Factory Contemporary Museum of Photography and Film, @ Spirit Square Galleries, 345 N. College St., Charlotte. Middleton McMillan Gallery, Through Aug. 11 - "The Light Factory's 41st Members Show." Always our most popular show, the exhibition allows any member of TLF to showcase a photograph in our gallery. The resulting exhibit is truly an array of creativity and talent, all brought together by members of our museum. Knight Gallery, Through Sept. 15 - "The Light Factory Sixth Juried Annuale". Our Juror, Dr. Kathleen V. Jameson, President & CEO of the Mint Museum of Art, had the daunting task of sifting through 110 entries before selecting the six finalists. Since Dr. Jameson was not told where any of the entrants were from, it is exciting to see that North Carolina (and the South) has dominated the field. Congratulations to our winners: Rachel E. Andrews (Denver, NC); Timothy McCoy (Cumming, GA); Laura Williams (Chapel Hill, NC); Mitchell Kearney (Charlotte, NC); Susan Alta Martin (Cullowhee, NC); and Jessica Naples (Columbus, OH).
