Columbia Area

Columbia Museum of Art, Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia. Through Sept. 14 - "Animal Instinct: Paintings by Shelley Reed". The exhibition illustrates animals in exquisite detail in the tradition of Old Master painting - but with a contemporary twist. Through Sept. 14 - "Cheer for the Home Team! Animal Mascots in the Collection". The exhibition explores the power and symbolism that animals have to rally our spirits and camaraderie. Mamie and William Andrew Treadway, Jr. Gallery 15, Through Aug. 31 - "Daryl Trivieri's Fantastic Animals: Selections from the Vogel Collection". This show features the work of an artist of wild imagination with tremendous drawing skills. Trivieri's obsession with fantastic animal imagery is the subject of this whimsical exhibition of two dozen works on paper. His influences range from the dreamlike masterworks of Brueghel to the surrealism of Dali. Throughout his career, Trivieri has been fascinated with the endless possibilities of pencil on paper. This jewel of an exhibition is organized from the CMA's extensive Vogel Collection of nearly 1,800 contemporary works given to the Museum in 2012 by the New York collectors Herb and Dorothy Vogel. Wells Fargo Education Gallery, Through Aug. 17 - "All the World's a Stage: Anita Lobel". Lobel's name is synonymous with the best in children's literature. Her life and career are truly amazing: from Holocaust survivor to designer to revered author and illustrator of children's books. This exhibition is comprised of over 70 works on paper and 30 books, representing more than 40 years of the artist's work. Selections range from Lobel's art as a textile designer in the early 1960s to some of her most famous books, such as "Nini Here and There", "Sven's Bridge", and "Away From Home". The show is on loan from the National Center for Children's Illustrated Literature in Abilene, TX. BB&T Focus Gallery, Ongoing - "Southern Traditions," will showcase the richness and diversity of the Museum's collection of furniture, ceramics, silver, basketry, sculpture and paintings by artists native to, or active in, South Carolina and its surrounding states. Among the works on view will be fine silver made by Charleston and Columbia silversmiths; a sweet grass basket by Mary Jackson (SC, born 1945); wood carvings by Edgar Alexander McKillop (NC, 1879-1950); and paintings by Charles Fraser (SC, 1782-1860), Xanthus Russell Smith (SC, 1839-1929), William Harrison Scarborough (SC, 1812-1871), William Aiken Walker (SC, 1838-1921), among others. Galleries 5 & 6, Ongoing - "Modern & Contemporary Art from the Collection". Celebrating some of the CMA's greatest hits, this exhibition features over 30 paintings, drawings, photographs and sculptures from the Museum's collection that have not been on view recently. It offers the visitor experiences both serious and sensual and is designed to both entertain and enlighten. Notable works included are by Jasper Johns, Howard Thomas, Sally Mann and Edward Ruscha, whose famous image of the Hollywood Hills (on view) has become a staple of the art world. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. Admission: Yes, but there is no admission charge on Sun. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 11am-5pm; first Fri., till 8pm; Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., noon-5pm. Contact: 803/799-2810 or at (www.columbiamuseum.org).

Cape of the Choctaw Frontier Jacket by Roger Amerman

McKissick Museum, University of South Carolina, USC Horseshoe, Columbia. 3rd Floor Central Gallery, Through Aug. 30 - "Hidden Treasures: Rediscovering McKissick Museum's Natural History Collection". In 2011, the Institute of Museum and Library Sciences (IMLS) awarded McKissick Museum a two year grant to inventory and catalogue the minerals and fossils in the Museum's natural history collection. Today, over 21,000 objects have been processed thanks to this grant and continued funding from IMLS. This exhibition highlights objects "rediscovered" during the grant cycle, while also paying tribute to the work of former Curator of Collections, Jill Beute Koverman. Along with the many treasures on display, the exhibit considers Koverman's immense contribution to the largely hidden work of preserving and caring for McKissick's collection, regarding her as "hidden treasure" herself. 2nd floor South Gallery, Aug. 8 - July 25, 2015 - "Traditions, Change, and Celebration: Native Artists of the Southeast". The exhibit be on view in conjunction with the 2nd Annual FOLK Fabulous festival on August 23, 2014, from 10am-4pm in front of the Museum on USC's historic horseshoe. This exhibition represents year two of McKissick's "Diverse Voices" series, which explores the vibrant traditions that help create and maintain the cultural landscape of South Carolina and the surrounding region. Each year the exhibit focuses on a specific theme or tradition. The South is home to a wide variety of deeply-rooted Native American tribal groups, each with their own dynamic history. The exhibition pays particular attention to five primary culture groups: Iroquoian, Muskogean, Algonquin, Mobilian and Siouan. Within these culture groups and spanning nine states, the traditions of a variety of tribes will be explored, including the Cherokee, Edisto, Choctaw, Catawba, Chickasaw, Seminole, Chitimacha, Pamunkey, Wassamasaw and Creek. Featuring the work of master artists within these communities, the exhibition explores how these artists are influenced by the world around them and how they influence their native communities through leadership and a dynamic sense of cultural identity. Ongoing - "Diverse Voices: Discovering Community Through Traditional Arts". Dedicated to the late George D. Terry, "Diverse Voices" explores deeply-rooted traditions that help create and maintain the cultural landscape of South Carolina and the surrounding region. Each year the exhibit will focus on a specific theme or tradition. Year one of "Diverse Voices" offers a comprehensive presentation of objects from the museum collection that represent the work of celebrated NEA National Heritage Fellows and Jean Laney Harris Folk Heritage Award recipients. Ongoing - "Highlights from the Permanent Collections of McKissick Museum". Permanent - "Baruch Silver Collection," a collection of the Baruch family silver. And, "Natural Curiosity: USC and the Evolution of Scientific Inquiry into the Natural World". Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm & Sat., 11am-3pm. Contact: 803/777-7251 or at (<http://artsandsciences.sc.edu/mcks/>).

South Carolina Confederate Relic Room and Military Museum, 301 Gervais Street, same building with the SC State Museum, Columbia. Through Aug. 15 - "An Artist's Story: Civil War Drawings of Edwin Forbes". Like thousands of young men, twenty-three-year-old John Edwin Forbes went to war in 1862, but he did not shoulder a rifle or carry a saber. A classically trained artist, Forbes joined a group of reporters known collectively as the Bohemian Brigade. Sent south by northern newspapers, they fed a home front population hungry for information about the war and the men engaged in it. For two and a half years Forbes documented the Union and Confederate armies in Virginia in camp, on the march, and in battle. Admission: Yes. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm & 1st Sun. of the month, 1-5pm. Contact: 803/737-8095 or at (www.crr.sc.gov).

SC State Museum, 301 Gervais St., Columbia. Aug. 16, from 9am-7pm - South Carolina State Museum Opens a One-of-a-Kind Facility with a Planetarium, Observatory and 4D Theater in Columbia, SC. To kick off the day, there will be a ribbon cutting and model rockets launched by students attending the Challenger Learning Center in Columbia. The day will be packed full of activities, including the opening of a new art exhibition, Building a Universe, which features original works focusing on space and the universe, live music representing popular South Carolina genres (bluegrass, blues, beach and gospel) and other family-friendly programming. The first 100 people will receive free general admission and other free tickets and great discounts to the museum for an entire year. Through Jan. 18 - "Chapman's Charleston, 1863-1864," which tells the story of the Civil War in Charleston from 1863-1864 through the eyes of artist and Confederate soldier, Conrad Wise Chapman. The 33 original Chapman paintings, shown for the first time in Columbia, will examine art during the Civil War, the military defenses of Charleston against the Union siege and other artists who worked in the city during the war. Through 2015 - "The Coming of the Civil War," will look at the origins of the disagreement between South Carolina and the federal government, beginning with the nullification crisis of 1832-33. The exhibit will be augmented by five more single-topic exhibits through the sesquicentennial war years (2011-2015) until the expansion space is filled. The Crescent Café, second floor mezzanine of the Museum. The house menu offers a variety of baked goods, juices, coffee, hot chocolate and tea. Lunchtime offerings include deli sandwiches and alternating daily soups, as well as grilled chicken salads and sandwiches. And let's not forget the house specialty: spectacular fudge, handmade on-site. Café Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm and Sun. 1-4pm. Museum Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Sun., 1-5pm. Admission: Yes.
