Greenville

Downtown Greenville - "First Fridays," featuring a gallery crawl presented on the first Fri. of the month from 6-9pm. Visit galleries throughout the downtown area. For info: (www.fristfridaysonline.com).

Clemson University's Center for Visual Arts - Greenville, The Village of West Greenville, 1278 Pendleton St., two story yellow brick building on corner of Pendleton St. and Lois Ave., Greenville. Through Aug. 30 - "Sense of Place: Picturing Life in West Greenville". Clemson University's Art Department was recently awarded a $5,000 grant by the South Carolina Arts Commission allowing the Center for Visual Arts at Clemson University to bring the internationally and nationally recognized editor, founder and curator of "Fraction Magazine", David Bram to curate the exhibition. Bram invited four photographers to visit the Village of West Greenville to observe, learn and interpret what they discover through an artistic trained eye using the lens of a camera accompanied by audio recorded stories given by the neighbors in the community. This neighborhood was recently rebranded to honor its mill village history. The artists selected to participate in the implementation of this exhibit are Dawn Roe residing in Asheville, NC, and Winter Park, FL; Dustin Chambers residing in Atlanta, GA; Kathleen Robbins residing in Columbia, SC; and Leon Alesi residing in Asheville, NC, and Austin, TX. Hours: Thur.-Sat., 1-6pm and on First Fridays, 1-9pm. Contact: call Greg Shelnett, Department of Art Chairman at 864/656-3890 or at (<http://www.clemson.edu/centers-institutes/cva/cva-greenville/>)

Greenville County Museum of Art, 420 College Street, Greenville. Through Sept. 21 - "Legacy of Impressionism: Languages of Light". Impressionism, the first bombshell launched against academic tradition, defined light as color, becoming the first modern language of paint. Sun-drenched and spontaneous, the 40 American Impressionist paintings from the GCMA collection found in the exhibition invite viewers to consider the ideas and techniques that opened the door to modern visual expression. Ten future Museum acquisitions are featured in the exhibition. These paintings, each with a Southern connection, explore variations on the theme of Impressionistic light. All ten paintings are supported by the Museum's annual fundraising campaign, Art for Greenville, which culminates in a unique celebration of Greenville's generosity: the Antiques, Fine Art and Design Weekend, to be held Oct. 17-19, 2014. Through Sept. 21 - "Content of Our Character: From States Rights to Civil Rights." From John C. Calhoun to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., state history, slavery, economics, the Civil War, and the Civil Rights movement come to life in this powerful exhibition drawn from the GCMA permanent collection. Ongoing - "Andrew Wyeth: Selected Watercolors." Andrew Wyeth (1917 - 2009), regarded as one of the most important American artists of the 20th century, launched his career in 1937 with a sold-out exhibition of his watercolors in New York. On the occasion of the young artist's remarkable debut, his father and mentor, noted illustrator N.C. Wyeth wrote him a congratulatory letter prophesying, "You are headed in the direction that should finally reach the pinnacle in American art." Admission: Free. Hours: Wed.-Sat., 10am-6pm and Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 864/271-7570 or at (www.greenville-page38.com) - Carolina Arts, August 2014

Hilton Head Island Area

Hilton Head Regional Healthcare Gallery, Coastal Discovery Museum, at Honey Horn, off Highway 278, across from Gumtree Road, Hilton Head Island. Through Aug. 11 - "Heart of the Lowcountry," featuring works by Amiri Farris. Two painting parties with the artist will be held on July 2 and July 19, both from 10am-noon. The exhibit illustrates and exemplifies the historic lifestyles and experiences of the Sea Islands and the Gullah/Geechee American experience in the Lowcountry. Farris will transform the Discovery House of the Coastal Discovery Museum at Honey Horn into a fabulous artistic vision of color and design, blurring boundaries between traditional and contemporary modes of representation. Vibrant layers of paint and installations transform the Gallery. The bold use of color, along with designs, patterns and Adinkra symbols, let you know the painting is an original work by Farris. Ongoing - This beautiful 69-acre site will serve as the Museum's base for programs highlighting the cultural heritage and natural history of the Lowcountry. And, it will provide a signature venue for community events for people of all ages. The opening includes the renovation of a 6,000 sq. foot former hunting retreat, renamed the "Discovery House," containing the Museum's new interactive exhibits, temporary gallery space and community meeting rooms. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 9am-4:30pm & Sun., 11am-3pm. Contact: 843-689-6767 ext. 224 or at (www.coastaldiscovery.org).
