Henri Matisse, "Nu au collier et aux cheveux longs (Nude with necklace and long hair)", c. 1920, etching on paper, 5 9/16 x 7 1/4 in. Bequest of Etta and Claribel Cone, 1949.

Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. The Gregory D. Ivy Gallery & The Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, Through Oct. 12 - "Shouts of Joy and Victory: Jewish and Christian Imagery from the Collection". Given the subject of this exhibition, it may surprise some visitors to learn that the art on display was made in the twentieth century. Rather than icons, or veneration of images per se, the works focus on subjects that incorporate either Christian or Judaic references, themes, or associations. Ranging from illustrations of Biblical passages and images of religious figures to amalgams of scripture, social consciousness, and pure abstraction, the objects have larger meanings than the images themselves. For example, William Gropper's print "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" not only refers to a Biblical passage and beloved hymn, but also may denote the 19th-century resistance movement that transported slaves from the American South to the North. Rufino Tamayo's image of the "Virgin of Guadalupe" celebrates Mexico's most popular religious and cultural icon and also asserts her presence in daily contemporary life. Regardless of viewers' religious or cultural practices, the spiritual facets of these modern works of art should be readily apparent to all. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum Gallery, The Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Gallery, Through Aug. 24 - "Food for Thought". The exhibition explores the use of food as a conceptual and formal tool in contemporary art. From monumental paintings of jelly donuts to highly aestheticized photographs of leftovers, the works in this exhibition reveal how artists transport the art historical tradition of still life painting into new territory by using food to explore contemporary issues and social concerns.. Gallery 6, Aug. 2 - Oct. 26 - "Matisse and His Musees". This installation of prints by Henri Matisse, all part of the Etta and Dr. Claribel Cone Collection, will focus on two aspects of the artist's favorite subject: the female form. The first group consists of seated women in interior scenes, many of them in quiet, pensive moods. The second group—depicting odalisques, or reclining nudes—is based on a long tradition in art to which Matisse added his own touch. Atrium and Lobbies - Featuring works of art complementing current gallery exhibitions which are rotated in the atrium and public areas throughout both floors of the gallery. Tom Otterness' site-specific work, "The Frieze" is permanently installed in the atrium. Sculpture

Courtyard - Featuring selections of American sculpture from 1900 to the present from the Weatherspoon Collection and on loan works from contemporary artists. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue., Wed. & Fri., 10am-5pm, Thur., 10am to 9pm and weekends, 1-5pm. Contact: 336/334-5770 or at (<http://weatherspoon.uncg.edu/>).

Hickory Museum of Art, Arts and Science Center, 243 Third Avenue NE, Hickory. Shuford Gallery, Through Sept. 21 - "Qualities of Light II". The Museum and Catawba Science Center present joint exhibitions that explore the theme of light. HMA has selected paintings from the permanent collection that display back lighting, chiaroscuro, refraction, reflections, and more. This exhibit features interactives for children.

Whitener Gallery, Through Aug. 24 - "7 Painters Launch 70 Years". This exhibition includes paintings by the first seven artists collected by Paul Whitener, the Museum's founder and first director, for HMA's Permanent Collection. The artists are Frederick Ballard Williams, Andrew Winter, George Bruestle, Chauncey Ryder, Albert Groll, Paul Dougherty, and Guy Wiggins. Coe Gallery, Through Oct. 12 - "Wolf Kahn: Then & Now." Featuring a selection of Wolf Kahn paintings from two important periods of his creativity. The early bold, emotional landscapes are typical of the Abstract Expressionist movement popular in the 1950's. Kahn's paintings and pastels from half a century later more easily blur the distinction between abstraction and reality. Most of these landscapes are also more colorful. Entrance Gallery, Through Oct. 11 - "New Acquisitions," featuring a selection of works acquired by the Museum in 2013 and 2014. Windows Gallery, Through Sept. 21 - "Live With History: The NY Times Photo Archives". This exhibit features 27 iconic photographs from The New York Times Photo Archives documenting major events and historical figures of our nation and the world. Photos include Ghandi, Harriet Tubman, the USS Arizona sinking, the 1947 women's baseball league, and more. Presented in conjunction with the Museum's 70th Anniversary as we reflect on our past and move into our future. Regal & Gifford Galleries, Through Nov. 2 - "Margaret Curtis". Tryon, NC, artist Margaret Curtis presents her paintings as part of the Gifford Gallery Local Artist Series. The artist says that her work is "fiction but based on real-life scenarios." Ongoing - "Glass & Pottery from the Museum's Permanent Collection." Mezzanine Gallery, Ongoing - "Discover Folk Art: Unique Visions by Southern Self-Taught Artists from the Hickory Museum of Art Collection." Admission: Free. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm & Sun., 1-4pm. Contact: 828/327-8576 or at (www.hickorymuseumofart.org).

Highlands

The Bascom, a center for the visual arts, 323 Franklin Rd., covered bridge entrance at the end of Main Street, Highlands. Bunzl Gallery, Through Sept. 28 - "Tom Turner: A Passion in Porcelain". This 50-year retrospective will feature the best examples of Turner's work, including his innovative techniques in copper red salt glazes. The exhibition will relate his professional experiences to the emergence of the American Ceramic Studio Movement from the mid-1960's to the present. A recreation of his early experimental salt glaze kiln will be installed as the core of the exhibition. Atrium Gallery, Through Aug. 31 - "From the Earth". Vicki Grant graduated from the University of Maryland's School of Architecture and has been practicing architecture for more than 25 years. The focus of her work has been towards creating visual experiences that engage the viewer both intellectually and emotionally. Her architectural background has defined basic design principles that have transferred well into her sculptural artwork. Grant has always felt that the most amazing forms, structure, color, and textures are found within nature, and that exposure to these elements has been her inspiration for her recent wall pieces and vessels. Balcony Gallery, Through Aug. 3 - "Elsa Norris Dodd Remembered". Dodd was a favorite character of Highlands, known by many to be a talented artist who promoted the arts in Highlands early on. Members of the Highlands Art League, in collaboration with The Bascom, have curated this exhibition of Dodd's work that will present a retrospective of her life's work. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm. Contact: 828/526-4949 or at (www.thebascom.org).
