Work by Ranaldo Kuhler

Gregg Museum of Art & Design, located in the Talley Student Center in the middle of the NCSU campus, Raleigh. Through Sept. 3 - "Renaldo in the land of Rocaterrania". One of most astounding art discoveries in decades, Raleigh outsider Renaldo Kuhler labored in secret for more than 60 years, using the power of his own imagination and keen drafting skills honed over decades as a scientific illustrator for the NC Museum of Natural Sciences, to bring the imaginary country of Rocaterrania into existence. Sept. 15 - Dec. 17 - "Earth with Meaning: the Photographs of Alan Cohen". A reception will be held on Sept. 22, from 6-8pm. After completing a degree in nuclear engineering at NC State and studying thermodynamics at Northwestern, Alan Cohen pursued a career in photography instead. Concentrating on places where the fragmentary physical remnants of historical and natural events are still visible - like vestiges of the Berlin Wall, remains of Holocaust sites, boundary lines, meteor impact craters, ruins of fortresses, abandoned colonial buildings - Cohen has documented "the earth of our past as a record of memory, not as an act of witness." Earth with Meaning presents a major retrospective of Cohen's starkly moving work, filling both of the Gregg's main galleries with carefully composed images revealing the scars of history. Ongoing - The Gregg's collecting focus reflects the mission of North Carolina State University and supports its academic programs by providing research opportunities for NCSU students and the citizens of North Carolina and beyond. The collection includes, but is not limited to, textiles, ceramics, outsider/folk art, photography, architectural drawings & modern furniture. The Gregg Museum of Art & Design also puts on six to eight exhibitions per year in its two galleries, in addition to exhibiting work at various places in the Talley Student Center and around campus. Hours: Mon.-Fri., noon-8pm and Sat.-Sun., 2-8pm. Contact: 919/515-3503 or at (www.ncsu.edu/arts).

North Carolina Museum of Art, 2110 Blue Ridge Road, Raleigh. Meymandi Exhibition Gallery, Through Sept. 4 - "30 Americans". The exhibit highlights the work of 31 contemporary African American artists in an exhibition organized by and drawn from the Rubell Family Collection in Miami, FL. The exhibition consists of 70 works of art and includes painting, drawing, photography, video, sculpture, and mixedmedia installations. The exhibition features both established and emerging artists and illustrates how a previous generation of African American artists has influenced the current generation. The exhibition focuses on artists who explore similar themes and subject matter in their work, primarily issues of race, gender, identity, history, and popular culture. Artists featured in the exhibition include Robert Colescott, David Hammons, Barkley Hendricks, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Kerry James Marshall, Lorna Simpson, Kara Walker, Carrie Mae Weems, Nick Cave, Glenn Ligon, Kehinde Wiley, Mark Bradford, iona rozeal brown, Wangechi Mutu, and many others. East Building, Level A, Through Nov. 13 - "Landscape Sublime: Contemporary Photography," features some of the best scenic images from the North Carolina Museum of Art's permanent collection. These works illustrate locations both near and far, as some of the artists have worked in familiar surroundings - Tennessee, for example - while others ventured to Cuba, France, and Italy. The works share a serene beauty and tonal subtleties that may inspire viewers to look more closely at the world around them and perhaps embark on artistic journeys of their own. West Building, Sept. 2 - Ongoing - Featuring 10 additional sculptures by the celebrated French artist Rodin on loan from Iris Cantor's private collection. Ongoing - "John James Audubon's The Birds of America". The state has owned this treasured volume since 1848, but it has never been exhibited. Ongoing - The North Carolina Museum of Art has an outstanding permanent collection of more than 5,000 objects spanning antiquity to the present day. On the occasion of the expansion, the Museum has acquired more than 100 new works of art. Representing commissions, giπs, and purchases, the new works encompass important and diverse examples of historic and contemporary art from around the world, and will be installed in the Museum's new building and the surrounding landscape. Highlights include a gift of 28 sculptures by Auguste Rodin, and work by such internationally acclaimed artists as Roxy Paine, Ursula von Rydingsvard, El Anatsui, Jaume Plensa, Jackie Ferrara, Ellsworth Kelly, and David Park, among others. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 9am-5pm; Sun., 10am-5pm; & open until 9pm on Fri. Contact: 919/839-6262 or at (www.ncartmuseum.org).

North Carolina Museum of History, 5 East Edenton Street, (between Salisbury and Wilmington Streets), Raleigh. Through Mar. 25, 2012 - "The Photography of Lewis Hine: Exposing Child Labor in North Carolina, 1908-1918". In the early 1900s, most child workers in North Carolina textile mills labored 10 to 12 hours, six days a week. They toiled in hot, humid, lint-filled air that triggered respiratory diseases. They endured the deafening roar of textile machinery. They risked serious injury from dangerous, exposed gears and belts. They forfeited a childhood. In 1908 the National Child Labor Committee hired photographer Lewis Hine to document the horrendous working conditions of young workers across the United States. That same year, he began visiting North Carolina's textile mills, where about a quarter of all workers were under age 16. Some were as young as 6. This exhibit presents forty of his images. Hine captured the harsh realities of their mill village lives in Cabarrus, Gaston, Lincoln, Rowan and other Tar Heel counties. Ongoing - Featuring exhibits dealing with North Carolina's history as a theme. Admission: Free. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 9am-5pm & Sun., noon-5pm. Contact: 919/807-7900 or at (http://www.ncmuseumofhistory.org/).

Work by Mary Edna Fraser

North Carolina Museum of Natural Sciences, 11 W. Jones Street, downtown Raleigh. Through Nov. 6 - "Witness Our Expanding Oceans," a comprehensive art and education exhibit created by artist Mary Edna Fraser and scientist Orrin Pilkey. The exhibit will explore the major elements of global climate change and the greenhouse effect with an emphasis on melting ice and rising seas. It will feature approximately 60 dyed silk batiks, depicting aerial, satellite, and conceptual perspectives of our environment. The batiks illustrate important effects of global warming, with written interpretation from both Fraser and Pilkey. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 9am-5pm; Sun., noon-5pm; & 1st Fri. till 9pm. Contact: 919/733-7450 or at (http://www.naturalsciences.org/).

Rocky Mount

Four Sisters Gallery, Dunn Center for the Performing Arts, NC Wesleyan College, 3400 N. Wesleyan Blvd., Rocky Mount. Through Dec. 11 - "Rocky Mount: Retrospective Art Exhibition of Leroy Person [1907-1985] Visionary Carvings". A lifelong resident of Occoneechee Neck, Garysburg, NC, Person never went to school and never learned to read or write. As soon as he was big enough to hold a hoe, he went to work as a sharecropper in the cotton fields and during World War II worked in a sawmill until retirement. When his health failed him from work-related asthma, he was forced to retire in 1970, but as a working man all his life, he continued to busy himself daily, turning a pastime hobby of whittling into an artistic obsession until he died. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm & Sat., 9am-noon. Contact: 252/985-5268.

Maria V. Howard Arts Center, Imperial Centre for the Arts and Sciences, 270 Gay Street, Rocky Mount. Through Sept. 11 - "Braswell Memorial Library's Killebrew Collection". Charles S. Killebrew, a Tarboro, NC, native, developed an interest for photography while in the Air Force. When he left the service in 1945, he worked as a freelance and staff photographer for the "Rocky Mount Telegram", operated a studio in Rocky Mount, and ran an aerial photography business. Killebrew's collection of photographic negatives spans his career, 1948 to 1997. The Braswell Memorial Library now holds the collection of approximately 500,000 images. This exhibit is a partnership with the Library to bring attention to this amazing collection and ask our community to assist with the stories associated with the images. Through Sept. 11 - "Charity Valentine: Forgotten". Valentine began her photography career with the US Air Force before completing an MFA from East Carolina University. She currently lives in Goldsboro and is the Coordinator for the new Fine Art Program at Pitt Community College in Greenville, NC. Her work has been widely exhibited throughout the US and her images have appeared in "Photographers Forum" and the "2007 North Carolina Literary Review". Through Sept. 18 - "William Neil Coleman: I Am". A Rocky Mount native raised in Red Oak, Coleman nurtured his interest in the arts through study at various colleges and working in a gallery setting. Coleman worked on and off for the Rocky Mount Arts Center from age 16 until moving to Penland School of Crafts in 2008. There he honed his style of assemblage and began creating unique works that relate to his roots. Currently a curator at the Turchin Centre for the Arts in Boone, this will be his first solo exhibition. Through Sept. 25 - "Juried Art Show". The Juried Art Show (JAS) is a national juried fine arts exhibition attracting entries from across the United States. Works are of all media are eligible including film and animation. A different unbiased juror is contracted each year to make selections. 2011's Juror is David Edgar. Through Sept. 25 - "John Carrasco III: the space inbetween". Carrasco's innovative wood sculptures embody the delicate stability between the physical object and the space it inhabits and implies. Carrasco currently lives in Bloomfield, CO, and holds an MFA from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. He has exhibited widely and holds numerous awards including Best in Show of the Arts Center's "2008 Juried Art Show". Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., 1-5pm.
