Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art, 750 Marguerite Drive, Winston-Salem. Through Sept. 1 - "Tomory Dodge & Denyse Thomasos: Directions to a Dirty Place," organized by SECCA; curated by Steven Matijcio. Paint can be both the image and the "stuff" of structure, moving between representation of place, and place itself. The work of Denver-born, Los Angeles-based artist Tomory Dodge and Trinidad-born, New York-based artist Denyse Thomasos slide between these poles in highly evocative ways. While much of Dodge's imagery is drawn from things observed during excursions into the California desert, much is left to fantasy as his maps move between geography and cosmology. Thomasos creates architecture with, and through paint - spanning multiple scales to suggest the blueprints of places half-real, half-imagined.

Through Sept. 1 - "Hedieh Javanshir Ilchi: A leaf from my rose garden," organized by SECCA; curated by Steven Matijcio. This exhibition is presented with the support of ART + Islam, a project of the Thomas S. Kenan Institute for the Arts at the UNC School of the Arts. The fluid, dream-like navigation of trans-national iconographies (and their attendant ideologies) inform the work of young Iranian-American artist Hedieh Javanshir Ilchi. Meeting in the garden paradises of Islamic myth, she marries contrasting traditions of ornamental Persian painting with the defiant splatters and pours of Western abstraction. This exhibition gathers a select grouping of Ilchi's paintings from the past three years, highlighting her increasingly sculptural application of paint, and her increasingly painterly rendering of politics. At the intersection, figures, animals and armies swim
