ALTERNATE ART SPACES - Rock Hill White Street Gallery, 130 West White Street, Rock Hill. On Permanent Display, until the material on which they are printed begins to deteriorate - "ALLEYS AS GALLERY'S". The Arts Council of York County implemented the Alleys as Galleries program with an exhibition in Cotton Alley on East Main St. in Rock Hill in 2018. This new project serves as the second Alleys as Galleries installation. Alleys as Galleries transforms York County, South Carolina's well-traveled alleys into art galleries that feature works by local and regional artists. Works by six York County high school students, Bruna Coelho, Luc Mercado, Paige Evans, Heather Lenti, Ashley Walsh, and Hunter Sigmond, were selected for a public art installation on the fence between Dust OFF Brewing Company and the Lowenstein Building along the Williams & Fudge fence line that faces White Street. ## Spartanburg

Throughout downtown Spartanburg's Cultural District, Ongoing - The Creative Crosswalk Project is a public art initiative in which local artists and designers design and paint a series of crosswalk murals, transforming the crosswalks into works of art, on Main Street in Spartanburg, SC. The downtown cultural district area is often bustling with events and pedestrians, and the pedestrians rely heavily on a multitude of crosswalks to safely traverse the downtown Spartanburg area. The problem is that crosswalks are incredibly easy to overlook, they are rarely visually appealing, and they can even be quite dangerous. In an effort to remedy these issues, Chapman Cultural Center, the City of Spartanburg, and the Spartanburg Area Chamber of Commerce came together to organize the Creative Crosswalk Project. Work by Carol Story

Artists Collective | Spartanburg (formerly West Main Artists Cooperative), 578 West Main St., Spartanburg. Sept. 1 - 26 - "Sans Verde," featuring works by Carol Story. As an artist recognized for her southern landscapes and nature-based still-lives, Story normally uses a lot of green oil paint on her canvases. But the color green will be hard to find in her latest collection of work. "Being mostly a landscape painter, I naturally use a lot of the color green. Tiring of this, I challenged myself to explore other color palettes," the Georgia native said. "I put away every tube of green oil paint for the last nine months, and the few greens I have used in this exhibit have been mixed from other colors." The exhibition of 18-20 works will be open for free public viewing Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm. However, because of the COVID-19 pandemic, exhibition hours may change without notice, and the public should refer to the facility's website (ArtistsCollectiveSpartanburg.org) for the most current information. Ongoing - The Collective features a twenty thousand square foot facility offering affordable studio space, retail space, three galleries, a full ceramics studio, printery, and works by 50 local artists. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm; with extended hours on the 3rd Thur. of each month until 9pm for Spartanburg's Art Walk. Contact: 864/804-6501 or at (artistscollectivespartanburg.org/).

Kite from Spartanburg Soaring

In and around the Chapman Cultural Center, Sept. 26, from 11am-5pm - "Spartanburg Soaring!" Featuring an event to encourage creativity, promote healthy outdoor activity, and to build civic pride. Using kites as a common theme, "Spartanburg Soaring!" engaged cultural curiosity and promoted active play through activities and events all across the city. The kite festival takes place in and around the Chapman Cultural Center each year when hundreds of colorful kites fill the skies above Spartanburg. Join us for live music and entertainment, great food trucks, makers market, an interactive kids zone, and so much more! The festival is free and open to all, including the many international kite flyers who have come from Europe, Asia, Canada, and across the United States to join the fun. Bring children to enjoy the Kids Zone. One of Spartanburg's great assets is its artists. The Makers Market will be set up where regional artisans will sell their wares - keeping 100% of their profits - so you can keep a piece of local culture even after you fly away. Everything will be affordable and locally handcrafted. The event is sponsored by Duke Energy. For further info visit (<https://www.chapmanculturalcenter.org/>).
