Hudson's philosophy is that fashion should be for everyone and include everyone. He designs to empower the wearer and often includes a nod to the '90s of his youth. See eight signature garments from key moments in his revolutionary career alongside more than 20 sketches and drawings exploring his career from the early days winning Bravo's Styled to Rock in 2013 up through the present day. Through Jan. 21, 2024 - "Lee Alexander McQueen & Ann Ray: Rendez-Vous". "Rendez-Vous" offers a rare glimpse into the life and mind of one of the most renowned contemporary fashion designers of our era, Alexander McQueen. Providing unique insight into the creative process of this influential and complex figure, this exhibition features key garments from McQueen's most celebrated fashion collections along with photographer Ann Ray's intimate portraits and behind-the-scenes photographs of McQueen's runway shows, taken over the course of their 13-year friendship. The exhibition includes 50 garments designed by McQueen and over 60 photographs taken by Ray, the only photographer permitted to document the behind-the-scenes culture of his runway shows and atelier. Organized and produced by Barrett Barrera Projects. Hudson will be at the CMA on Nov. 18 for a special opening day program. Through Jan. 1, 2025 - "The Collection". McMaster Gallery, room 119, basement level, McMaster Building, 1615 Senate Street, Columbia. Through Nov. 30 - "You Look Like The Right

Type: 15 Years," featuring works by Mark Addison Smith. Smith's ongoing project began in the bustling Chicago Loop back in 2008 when a chance encounter with a stranger led to the inception of a unique daily practice. Over the past fifteen years, he has crafted over 6,000 drawings in an archive he fittingly named "You Look Like The Right Type." By transcribing the spoken words of everyday people into permanent visual narratives, Smith transforms fleeting moments into enduring artworks. These black and white, type-forward drawings, when woven together, form intricate grayscale conversations that transcend boundaries of age, gender, location, and time, connecting strangers through the unspoken. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-4:30pm. Contact: Olga Dickey, Gallery Director, at 803/422-4289 or e-mail to (yukhno@mailbox.sc.edu).

Florence

View of the William H. Johnson exhibit

Florence County Museum, 111 West Cheves Street, across the street from the Francis Marion University Performing Arts Center, Florence. Ongoing - "Kindred Spirit: The Personal Worlds of William H. Johnson". William H. Johnson (1901 - 1970) was a man between worlds: raised in the rural South, but educated in New York; black, but his unknown father was white; American-born, but lived much of his adult life in Europe. This diverse heritage gave Johnson a unique perspective and insight, but at times it was also a difficult shadow which followed him as he traveled the world in search of his true artistic voice. Eventually, after many years away from his hometown of Florence, SC, Johnson returned to the United States. Although living in New York, his art began to focus almost entirely on the lives and experiences of African Americans in the rural South. "My travels taught me that an artist must live and paint in his own environment... This development shall continue for the rest of my life, and it is the painting of my people," said Johnson in 1941. Special Exhibit Gallery, Through Jan. 28, 2024 - "Openings: Joseph Kameen". In his recent paintings, South Carolina artist Joseph Kameen investigates how the search for meaning in everyday moments becomes distorted as internal thoughts are projected onto inanimate surroundings, blurring the line between reality and memory. With their strong compositions, intense interplay of colors, and theatrical effects of light and shadow, the paintings' characters, objects, and events take on a dream-like presence that is both familiar and elusive, suggesting meanings that remain slightly out of reach. His images occupy a space somewhere between the observed and the observer, achieving a subtle symbolic ambiguity and leaving room for multiple interpretations. Kameen's work has been exhibited in New York, London, and Berlin. He received his MFA in painting from Indiana University following a BFA in painting and sculpture from Boston University. He is currently Assistant Professor of Art at the University of South Carolina Aiken. Educational Gallery, Ongoing - "Hutty: The Art of Observation". Community Gallery, Ongoing - This exhibit introduces visitors to the history of the museum and its formative collections.
