Florence

Florence County Museum, 111 West Cheves Street, across the street from the Francis Marion University Performing Arts Center, Florence. Ongoing - "Kindred Spirit: The Personal Worlds of William H. Johnson". William H. Johnson (1901 - 1970) was a man between worlds: raised in the rural South, but educated in New York; black, but his unknown father was white; American-born, but lived much of his adult life in Europe. This diverse heritage gave Johnson a unique perspective and insight, but at times it was also a difficult shadow which followed him as he traveled the world in search of his true artistic voice. Eventually, after many years away from his hometown of Florence, SC, Johnson returned to the United States. Although living in New York, his art began to focus almost entirely on the lives and experiences of African Americans in the rural South. "My travels taught me that an artist must live and paint in his own environment... This development shall continue for the rest of my life, and it is the painting of my people," said Johnson in 1941. Special Exhibits Gallery, Through Jan. 22 - "Steven F. Gately". Gately (1946 - 2021), and feature a selection of paintings, mixed media assemblage, and works on paper created in the 50-year period approximately between 1970 and 2020. Gately was best known locally as the C.B. & Marlene Asking Professor of Art, and Coordinator of Visual Arts Programs at Francis Marion University, where he taught for 48 years. He received his MFA degree from Florida State University. Although an accomplished realist artist, the overall corpus of Gately's work can be described as formal abstraction, emphasizing foundational principals and elements to achieve modernist compositions. He was the subject of over twenty solo exhibitions during his lifetime. His work is represented in the collections of the Gibbes Arts Gallery, Charleston; The Columbia Museum of Art, Columbia; the State Art Collection
