Publisher's Note: Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic it is advised that you check with facilities you want to visit before you do so, to find out if they are open and what limitations they are working under. Don't just assume they are open or closed and don't forget about these people, there are many ways you can support them during these troubling times. Check out their websites.

Virtual Exhibitions

Work by Ryan Fox, Central Regional Winner

Through Apr. 15 - "2021 Watercolor Society of North Carolina Member Exhibition" on view at (ncwatercolor.org). Winners have been selected in the Western, Central and Eastern Divisions. The judge Donna Jill Witty, AWS/ NWS/WHS/TWSA Master Status, had a difficult time choosing the winners from the 98 pictures submitted. All pictures submitted are on the website and are for sale. The WSNC is a nonprofit art organization founded to encourage and recognize professional and artistic excellence through competitions and by elevating standards in watermedia. WSNC strives to promote watercolor throughout the state by hosting workshops featuring nationally recognized artists, by sponsoring juried exhibitions, and by educating all through informational programs. The following are the winners of the first prize for each of the three regions: "Reflections of Spring," by Pamela Haddock (Western Region); "Amsterdam Sunset," by Ryan Fox (Central Region); and "Suppertime," by Pat Holscher (Eastern Region).

Apr. 16, 2021 - "NC State's Virtual Student Art Sale" begins at noon at this link (https:// www.flickr.com/photos/artsncstatestudentart/ albums/72157713705529527). Since 2001, Arts NC State has purchased original artwork of NC State students. A committee of staff, students and local artists review the submitted work and choose art to purchase. The chosen works become a part of the permanent collection of Arts NC State and will hang in Talley Student Union or selected locations on campus. To date, our collection has over 150 pieces of student art. But what to do with all the art that isn't purchased by Arts NC State? We realized that there was a need to open up the purchase so that all of the student art was able to be seen and possibly purchased. The sale went public in 2015. In that first year, $3,000 worth of student art was sold, with proceeds going directly to the students, and in 2019, we sold over $13,000! Due to COVID-19, the 2020 sale has moved online. This is our first time trying this, and we appreciate your willingness to support our students' education on arts entrepreneurship as many of them sell their work online for the first time. Arts NC State will serve as an intermediary between the student artists and the customers. We will provide a link to an online gallery which will showcase each student work of art. You will click on the image you are interested in, learn more about the student and the piece (and whether they are open to commissions), and then click on a link that will take you to the student's online shop (Etsy, ArtFire, Ebay etc). From there, you will see whether the art has sold, and you will be able to purchase and/ or interact with the students. Some students will be shipping your art and some will be delivering it to your doorstep. Have questions? Feel free to e-mail Amy Sawyers-Williams, manager of the art sale at (acsawyer@ncsu.edu).

Through June 20 - "Expanding the Pantheon: Women R Beautiful". We are pleased to present The Mint Museum's first online exhibition. This exhibition features 26 photographs from Ruben Natal-San Miguel's Spring 2020 exhibition at Postmasters Gallery, New York City. For the last two decades, Ruben Natal-San Miguel has been challenging the expectations of who gets memorialized and celebrated in our art spaces. His portrait "Mama (Beautiful Skin)" has been one of the most impactful photographs in the Mint galleries in recent years. The woman—arms crossed, shoulders -stares at us, the viewer, with confronta tion that may outshine her own confidence. The bold red backdrop-a van, with slight reflections in the refulgent surface - highlights not only her stalwart posture, but also, her skin. an effect of vitiligo. The details—her skin, her cornrows, the white Tshirt, even the red vanare not elements often seen in an art gallery or museum. This is Natal-San Miguel's mission: to introduce a new range of venerated beauty for our consideration.
