Florence

Florence County Museum, 111 West Cheves Street, across the street from the Francis Marion University Performing Arts Center, Florence. Special Exhibits Gallery, Through Sept. 22 - "Manning Williams". Charleston native artist Manning Williams (1939 - 2012) began his career as a realist artist. However, in the 1990s, his art took an extraordinary turn as Williams began to incorporate comic book imagery into large, abstract

expressionist compositions. This synthesis often utilized a recurrent vocabulary of shapes and symbols to create an elusive narrative exploring personal, historical and political themes. Ongoing - This exhibit introduces visitors to the history of the museum and its formative collections. This gallery also exhibits the histories and diversity of the City of Florence, and the incorporated municipalities of Florence County. Additionally, the Community Gallery communicates the lives, stories and accomplishments of significant past and present citizens of Florence County and members of it's communities. This gallery is one of two permanent exhibit spaces designed by award winning exhibit design firm, HaleySharpe Design. Pee Dee History Gallery, Ongoing - This is the largest gallery space in the facility, comprising 3,300 sq. ft. of exhibit space. This permanent collections gallery occupies the entire second floor, east wing of the building. Artifacts are supported by historical images and narrative interpretation, giving a comprehensive introduction to the Pee Dee region from prehistory to the present. This gallery is one of two permanent exhibit spaces designed by award winning exhibit design firm, HaleySharpe Design. Waters Gallery, Through Aug. 9 - "leap," featuring an exhibition of mixed-media sculptures by Leah Mulligan Cabinum, winner of the ArtFields® 2018 Solo Exhibition Award presented by the Florence Regional Arts Alliance. Often derived from found or repurposed objects or detritus, Cabinum's practice has been described as post-minimalist, risky and honest. Biomorph, curvaceous and bulging forms mimic the visceral and link the physical with the psychological. Natural references such as flora, fauna and physiology symbolize the artist's various life phases and emotions. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun. 2-5pm. Contact: 843/676-1200 or visit (www.flocomuseum.org).

Greenville

Downtown Greenville - "First Fridays," featuring a gallery crawl presented on the first Fri, of the month from 6-9pm. Visit galleries throughout the downtown area. For info: (www.fristfridaysonline.com).

Greenville Center for Creative Arts, 25 Draper Street, Greenville. June 7 - July 24 - "Fiber, Paper, Scissors," showcases four artists from the Greenville area whose emphasis on their chosen medium celebrates the beauty of cloud formations and South Carolina's landscapes. A reception will be held on June 7, from 6-9pm and an ARTalk will be offered on July 16, from 6-7pm. Douglas Piper (Greenville, SC), Meredith Piper (Greenville, SC), and Mark Mulfinger (Greenville, SC) see an unexplained beauty in the clouds which is intrinsically tied to their craft. Their body of work Amongst the Clouds consists of various mediums including work based in batik, watercolor, acrylic and oil paint, block prints, and textile. Their work will on display in Gallery A. Over the course of 100 consecutive days, Sarah Mandell (Greenville, SC) created one fiber painting per day. Focusing on South Carolina's landscapes, her 100 Days, 100 Fibers in Gallery B induces fascination over this state's abundance of sceneries and landmarks. This collection of fiber painting shares Sarah's appreciation for all the beauty SC has to offer. Ongoing - Home to 16 studio artists. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm & Sat., 11am-3pm. Contact: call 864/735-3948 or at (www.artcentergreenville.org).

Greenville County Museum of Art, 420 College Street, Greenville. Through June 9 - "Jasper Johns: More Than Meets the Eye". Born in 1930, Jasper Johns is the world's most critically acclaimed living artist. His work bridges the immediate post-World War II modernist trends of Surrealism and Abstract Expressionism with subsequent movements of the 1960s, including Pop art, Minimalism, and Conceptual art. The GCMA collection of works by Jasper Johns began with several gifts from the artist himself upon the occasion of the museum's opening in 1974. Today, the GCMA collection is one of the ten largest institutional collections of works by Johns in the world. Through Aug. 11 - "How About Pleasantburg?" Featuring scenes of Greenville by Andrew Lenaghan, William McCullough, John Moore, and Ed Rice. Through Sept. 15 - "Andrew Wyeth: Model Citizens". Wyeth's subjects focused on two locations: Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania, his birthplace, and Cushing, Maine, his second home since childhood. Drawing inspiration from the distinctive characteristics of these locations, he revealed universal attributes in his depictions of landscapes, objects, and people. This selection from the Museum's collection emphasizes Wyeth's preference for painting intimate subjects, including his family, his friends, and his favorite models. He once said, "I am an illustrator of my own life." Through Sept. 15 - "Persons of Interest". An exhibition of fifteen new additions to the Museum's Southern Collection, featuring figurative subjects from three centuries, "Persons of Interest" depicts some of the South's most intriguing subjects, including politicians, socialites, immigrants, and allegorical figures. Through Sept. 15 - "Arnold Mesches: How Does Your Garden Grow?" Born in the Bronx, Arnold Mesches (1923-2016) grew up in Buffalo, New York, and in 1943 moved to Los Angeles, where he accepted a scholarship to the Art Center School. In 1945, the artist came under FBI scrutiny as a suspected subversive communist for his participation in labor-related protests. The FBI maintained an open file on Mesches until 1972, after which he gained possession of the file's contents. He then created a provocative series of collages using the material the file contained. Ongoing - "Anna Heyward Taylor: GCMA Collection". Born in Columbia, artist Anna Heyward Taylor (1879-1956) was at the forefront of the Charleston Renaissance at the turn of the 20th century. She graduated from the SC College for Women, and later studied in Holland with William Merritt Chase. In 1916, and again in 1920, she traveled to British Guiana as a scientific illustrator drawing native plant life. She returned to South Carolina in 1929 and settled in Charleston, where she collaborated with Chalmers Murray on "This Our Land," a book of prints inspired by the crops--indigo, rice, cotton, tobacco--and natural life--birds and flowers--of the Lowcountry. Ongoing - "Art and Artists of South Carolina: David Drake, Jasper Johns, William H. Johnson, and Grainger McKoy". The contributions of South Carolina artists to our culture are as varied and rich as the stories of the artists themselves. The GCMA is proud to dedicate an entire gallery to the accomplishments of four of the nation's greatest artists, each of whom has called South Carolina home. Admission: Free. Hours: Wed.-Sat., 10am-6pm and Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 864/271-7570 or at (www.gcma.org).
