to abstracts. Portraits of people or animals are available. Photographic work captures magnificent landscapes, small moments in life, portraits, and far away places. The pottery and clay art includes edgy handbuilt pieces, thought-provoking sculpted masks, and decorative and functional pottery that captures images of nature. Our jewelry artists provide a wide range of hand-crafted necklaces, earrings, bracelets and other ornaments from metals, stones, beads and fused glass. Our glass artist creates stained glass hangings, custom stained glass windows and fused glass art. You can also find unusual hand-made books and hand-painted porcelain both antique and new. Hours: Wed.&Thur., 11am-3pm and Fri.&Sat., 11am-5:30pm. Contact: 919/462-2035 or at (www.carygalleryofartists.org).

Cary Senior Center, 120 Maury O'Dell Pl., in Bond Park, Cary. Through June 17 - "Granparazzi," featuring photography. Grandparazzi Photography Club was formed in the Spring of 2011 as a collection of avid photographers and those wanting to learn more about their cameras, specifically digital cameras. For more about the club, join the group on the fourth Thursday each month from 1:30-3:30pm in classroom 302 in the Cary Senior Center. Hours: Mon.-Thur., 9am-9pm & Fri.-Sat., 9am-6pm. Contact: 919/469-4081.

Herbert Young Community Center, 101 Wilkerson Avenue, Cary. Through June 3 - "Charu Nagi: Harmonious Deviation," featuring works in watercolor. Watercolor Inspired from nature-based photography, my work is a collection of different aspects of creation occurring in nature. Every painting is different from each other so there is deviation but is in harmony as they are all part of the same nature. June 8 - Aug. 21 - "Emily Page: Fractured Memories: Songs For Dementia," featuring works in oil on canvas and mixed media. Page's father was diagnosed with dementia, she began a series of paintings about her family's journey. She also wrote a book, "Fractured Memories: Because Demented People Need Love, Too." She utilizes the elephant as a symbol for dementia because "an elephant never forgets," and features music throughout the series of paintings to honor her father's career as a jazz musician. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-10pm; and Sat., 9am-6pm. Contact: 919/4604965 or (www.townofcary.org).

Page-Walker Arts & History Center, 119 Ambassador Loop, Cary. Through July 1 - "Fine Arts League of Cary: Juried Exhibition". The exhibition is open to artists living in the United States. This year, FALC is pleased to announce that our juror will be Jennifer Dasal, former curator of modern and contemporary art at the North Carolina Museum of Art in Raleigh, and current host of the independent podcast ArtCurious. ArtCurious, which Dasal started in 2016, was named one of the best history podcasts by "O", the Oprah Magazine's website, and one of the best podcasts of 2019 by PC Magazine. Through July 1 - "Melanie Stoer: Reef Collection," featuring works in glass. Stoer is the creative spark behind the designs of Melsie Glass fused glass art. Her new "Reef" collection departs from function, bringing forms and life to an imaginary coral reef. From whimsical plants to imaginary sea creatures, you never know what might bubble up. Hours: Mon.-Thur., 10am-9:30pm; Fri., 10am-5pm; & Sat., 10am-1pm. (It is strongly advised that you call ahead about hours this space will be open.) Contact: 919/460-4963.

Town Hall Gallery, City of Cary Town Hall, 316 North Academy Street, Cary. Through June 3 - "Barbara Rizza Mellin: A Joy Forever," featuring works in watercolor and ink. Asian Brush Painting is the simple elegance of the natural subjects, plus the real and apparent spontaneity of the process. Less is more. A few strokes can capture the beauty of a blossom or the fragility of a falling leaf. Mellin creates each image at one sitting, with no preliminary drawing and very little overpainting or modification. The idea is to capture the natural essence of the image rather than a detailed botanical copy. June 8 - Aug. 5 - "Rachel Espenlaub: Extract," featuring works in acrylic and oil on canvas. Espenlaub describes her paintings are abstract geometric in nature and primarily made up of triangles with flat solid colors. Although inspired by memories of different outdoor locations, each of these paintings are ambiguous; a play with color relationships and shape dominance, creating striking but unimposing paintings. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8am-5pm. Contact: 919/469-4061.

Chapel Hill - Carrboro

sance, gave visual form to the idea that Black American culture is a modern culture of diaspora. Douglas created figures embodying Pan-African ideas of Black achievement and creativity. He chronicled 20th century Black American culture and cultivated the self-image of Black Americans as a cosmopolitan cultural vanguard connected with Black people worldwide. Through June 19 - "Myth & Memory: Selected Works by the MFA Class of 2022." Five artists interrogate practices of history-making and history-keeping at the individual, institutional, and systemic level. Beginning with personal narrative, each artist engages a vocabulary of fantasy to make visible that which has been forgotten, obscured, or erased by white heteropatriarchal modes of dominance. Participating artists include: Raj Bunnag, Charlie Dupee, Hugo Ljungbäck, Phuong Duyên Hải Nguyễn, and Stella Rosalie Rosen. Myth & Memory is curated by Laura Ritchie '10 (BFA), a curator, arts administrator, and cultural worker in Durham; she is a founder and former Executive Director of The Carrack. Through July 3 - "Ghost of a Dream: Aligned by the Sun (through the revolution)". In a time of travel bans, immigration debates, climate change, and a global pandemic, the artist team Ghost of a Dream has created their multi-faceted project Aligned by the Sun in an effort to bring hope to our collective experience and unify our fractured planet. To assemble the footage necessary for this endeavor, Ghost of a Dream has collaborated with artists in over 220 nations by asking them to capture a short video of the sunset. All but seven of the 195 countries recognized by the United Nations, as well as many non-UN nations and territories, are represented by these videos. These videos provide the source material for many iterations of the project, including large installations, video collages, and still-image composites. Through July 25 - "Ancestral Altar Ram Heads from the Collection of Rhonda Morgan Wilkerson, PhD". This fifth installment of the Ackland's ongoing series of presentations featuring important works of art from the distinguished collection of Rhonda Morgan Wilkerson, PhD, showcases three ram heads carved for ancestral altars in the cultures of what is now south-central Nigeria. Formally inventive and stylistically diverse, these powerful heads would have been the focus of honoring and commemorating paternal ancestors within a chief's shrine. Museum Store Gallery (Franklin and Columbia Street), Store hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-5:30pm & Sun., noon-5pm. Museum Hours: Wed.-Sat., 1-5pm. Contact: 919/966-5736 or at (www.ackland.org).

Charlotte Area

Bechtler Museum of Modern Art, Levine Center for the Arts, 420 South Tryon St., Charlotte. Fourth-Floor Gallery, Through June 19 - "Annemarie Schwarzenbach: Departure Without Destination". The exhibition is presented in collaboration with Zentrum Paul Klee in Bern, Switzerland, is the first major retrospective dedicated to the photography of this Swiss writer, photographer, and journalist Annemarie Schwarzenbach (1908-1942). Ongoing - The Bechtler Museum of Modern Art is named after the family of Andreas Bechtler, a Charlotte resident and native of Switzerland who assembled and inherited a collection of more than 1,400 artworks created by major figures of 20th-century modernism and donated it to the public trust. The Bechtler collection comprises artworks by seminal figures such as Alberto Giacometti, Joan Miro, Jean Tinguely, Max Ernst, Andy Warhol, Alexander Calder, Le Corbusier, Sol LeWitt, Edgar Degas, Nicolas de Stael, Barbara Hepworth and Picasso. Only a handful of the artworks in the Bechtler collection have been on public view in the United States. Admission: Yes. Hours: Mon., Wed.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Sun. noon-5pm; and open until 9pm the 1st. and 3rd. Fri. of each month. Contact: 704/353-9200 or at (www.bechtler.org).

Bill and Patty Gorelick Gallery at Central Piedmont Community College's Cato Campus, Cato III, 8120 Grier Road, Charlotte. Through June 30 - "Perceptions," featuring works by Samuel Spees. Perfect: (adj) having all the required or desirable elements, qualities, or characteristics; as good as it is possible to be. Absolute. (v) make (something) completely free from faults or defects, or as close to such a condition as possible. Spees' pursuit of perfection is the foundation of his inspiration as an artist and why he is drawn to glass as a process. "Each of us renders the world through a distinctive lens. This observation is biased in many ways pertaining to memories and experiences, in addition to our own emotional construct. This body of work is evidence of how I decipher the beautifully perfect world around me. It is shaped with pieces of glass both found and purposely made that have been previously pulled, pinched, and cut. When melted together, they seamlessly flow throughout the body creating a colorful vignette of time and memory. These landscapes of pigment yield a much deeper understanding of my perception, helping to explore distortion in pattern together with my emotional connection to color in our natural world," says Spees. Through Dec. 9 - "School Lunch," featuring works by Lisa Weinblatt. "The School Lunch series is a visual essay of contemporary student life in real educational settings. Contemporary, cross-cultural issues and their emotional attitudes are explored in the shared lunch experience. School Lunch is generated from direct observation, drawing on location in the lunchrooms of high schools, universities and colleges of Queens, New York. Visual images have the power to transform and enlarge our perceptions, as well as, confirm identity and validate experience. "The School Lunch paintings seek to promote discussion and understanding of one another, while encouraging tolerance and acceptance. Each individual in my paintings, drawn in the moment, is an actual person. School Lunch underlines perceptions which affirm cultural identity, brings together ideas espousing contemporary social justice, gender and political concerns while encouraging a belief in the quality of human spirit. My objectives include continuing to forge a bridge connecting a multi-cultural society with achievement; through cooperation and tolerance," says Weinblatt. Bill and Patty Gorelick Gallery at Central Piedmont Community College's Central Campus, North Classroom, 1320 Sam Ryburn Walk, Charlotte. Through June 16 - "The Escape Artist," featuring works by Paul Hastings. Hastings is an artist who easily segues from landscapes to still life to surrealism in his chosen medium, oil painting. Blatantly versatile, his landscapes feature bright, intense color bordering on the surreal with an emphasis on amplified perspective. His paintings offer a brief escape from reality — a magical, if only momentary visual journey into the mystic, thus his self-proclaimed title, "The Escape Artist." His artistic quest is to capture a specific moment in time on each canvas. Enhancing the subtleties of light and shadows in cloud formations against an artfully blended sky has become a trademark of Hastings's work. Accompanying his hyper-realistic works is a body of surrealistic paintings that combine his mastery of realism and his unbounded creativity to couple seemingly disparate elements of the natural world into cohesive and plausible flights of fancy. Fish fly, animals change their spots and earn their stripes, and landscapes are transformed into intensely colorful showcases for these adventures on canvas. Hours: open while campus is open, but reservation help help us alert our security team to visitors, provide directions to the galleries, and COVID-19 security protocol instructions to the visitors. Bill and Patty Gorelick Gallery at Central Piedmont Community College's Harper Campus, Harper IV, 315 W. Hebron St., Charlotte. Through Dec. 9 - "Everyday Poems," featuring works by Tim Bowman. Photographer Tim Bowman "collects" urban landscapes and arranges the city's architectural shapes and textures to create formal compositions while simultaneously recording the histories of use and reuse evident on the building exteriors. "We assume that cities are hard and immutable, but this is not true. They adapt to meet new requirements as the needs of their inhabitants change. The Winston-Salem Project is a record of that change, watching as our city continues its transformation from manufacturing and tobacco town into the City of Arts and Innovation," says Bowman. Through Dec. 9 - "The Sculptures of Kevin O'Toole". "Over the past 35 years I have developed an increasingly spare vocabulary of forms. At one time more organic, my pieces have gradually become more geometric through the influence of both process and choice of material. Wood was initially a choice of convenience, a permanent material, readily available and easily worked with common tools. Although I have never considered myself a "woodworker," I now rarely think in terms of another material. Although formal and abstract in design, my pieces are intended to be appreciated on a more intimate level as objects we encounter on a very human scale, said O'Toole. Hours: open while campus is open, but reservation help help us alert our security team to visitors, provide directions to the galleries, and COVID-19 security protocol instructions to the visitors. Contact: 704/330-6869 or e-mail to (foundation@cpcc.edu) to schedule an appointment. For directions to Central Piedmont's campuses, visit (cpcc.edu/locations).

Bill and Patty Gorelick Gallery at Central Piedmont Community College's Harris Campus, Harris II, 3210 CPCC Harris Campus Drive, Charlotte. Through Dec. 9 - "Unpacked, The Works of Ellen Lee Klein". "Stretching the formal elements, I structure my own dynamic philosophical microcosm. My works reflect the marriage of my internal and external worlds and their influence upon each other as they and my life evolve through time and experience. The works reflect my tongue-in-cheek responses to contemporary life. The merging of my training and the processes involved in the making of each and every work combined express and inspire their structure and form. I remain faithful to the essence of what has continued to fascinate and drive me through the years — the searching yet delusive lines, color resonance, spatial ambiguity, and layers of delicious pigment along with the unmistakable clutter and vestiges of contemporary life. The works reflect the profound noise and ambiguity, as well as the transitioning and turbulence of the human condition," said Klein. Klein was born, raised, and educated in New York City, earning a BA from City College of New York and an MFA from Pratt Institute. Her long career in visual arts has included work as a teacher, arts administrator, art critic and writer, as well as numerous group and solo exhibitions in New York galleries and campuses. See the Ellen Lee Klein Interview at (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KJVhNE9CAFY>). Through Dec. 9 - "Glasscapes, Nature-Inspired Blown Glass," featuring works by Thomas Spake. "This exhibition is a tribute to the places that I hold dear, from my travels in the past and from the adventures yet to come. Our planet is changing, the seas are rising, the ice caps are melting, wildfires are ravaging our forests. My hope is that there is still time. I work with hot glass. I strive to create patterns and textures that mimic the natural world, stone, water, earth. I create these patterns by layering and fusing glass chips and powders to the surface of the glass. Heavily influenced by impressionistic painters Monet, Klimt, and Van Gogh and their mixture of color and patterns, this style of work aims to express the idea of a landscape as opposed to creating a representation. The simple flattened forms create a canvas, a front and a back, where I can fully express my intentions. In the final phase of creation, I carve into the sandblasted, opaque exterior to reveal the translucent glass just beneath the surface. All of these techniques come together to give the pieces a raw complexity, conjuring explorations of our memories," said Spake. Hours: open while campus is open, but reservation help help us alert our security team to visitors, provide directions to the galleries, and COVID-19 security protocol instructions to the visitors. Contact: 704/330-6869 or e-mail to (foundation@cpcc.edu) to schedule an appointment. For directions to Central Piedmont's campuses, visit (cpcc.edu/locations).

Bill and Patty Gorelick Gallery at Central Piedmont Community College's Levine Campus, Levine II, 2800 Campus Ridge Road, Matthews. Through Dec. 9 - "Ceramic Art," featuring works by Ju-lan Shen. A native of Taiwan, Shen came to North Carolina for graduate study in landscape architecture at NC State's College of Design. She took up pottery as a hobby in the early 2000's after attending the National Council on Education for the Ceramic Arts annual conference and exhibitions in Charlotte. After 30-plus years as a landscape
