Clover

Gallery 120, 120 Bethel Street, Clover. Ongoing - Established in January 2015, Gallery 120 was created as a community art gallery with a mission to build a strong vibrant Arts community and encourage growth and exposure of professional and emerging artists while educating our community in the Fine Arts. Gallery 120 is a center where partnerships with other art groups serve as an opportunity for community involvement and showcase a variety of artwork, with a special focus on student art. Gallery 120 exhibits change monthly with professional and student artists. The gallery also offers a First Friday public art reception, held on the first Friday of every month from 6-8pm. We exhibit artwork created by artists who are professional and whose works are exceptional in skill and presentation. We showcase student artwork crafted by students in our schools, from the elementary level through high school level. The gallery also showcases works of emerging artists, whether they are hobbyists in drawing or painting or some other fine art medium. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8am-5pm. Contact: 803/222-9493 or at (www.Clovergallery120.org).

Columbia Area

Tina Williams Brewer, "Whirling Dance and the Unconscious Rhythm", 2007, Discharged batik fabric, silk, taffeta, tulle, organza, and embroidery with cotton floss, silk, and metallic threads, 33 x 43 in. Courtesy of the artist.

Columbia Museum of Art, Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia. Through Oct. 22 - "Constantine Manos: A Greek Portfolio". Born in Columbia to Greek immigrant parents in 1934, Constantine Manos traveled to Greece in the early 1960s, where he photographed the everyday lives of villagers over a period of three years. The resulting body of work, first published in 1972 as "A Greek Portfolio", solidified the photographer's reputation and quickly earned international recognition. In 1978, he donated 50 of those prints to the Columbia Museum of Art, a selection of which is on view in this exhibition. Manos' account captures the beauty, simplicity, and hardships of rural Greek life with the sensitivity of one with familial ties to that country. In intimate images exploring love, loss, faith, and family, the artist prompts reflection on the nature of human relationships and the connections between land and labor. Through Sept. 3 - "Bullets and Band-aids: A Veteran Anthology". Inspired by veterans from across North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, Bullets and Band-aids: A Veteran Anthology features stories and art that look at returning home after war to the newly unfamiliar "normalcy" of civilian life after the chaos of combat, asking: "What is my next step?" Each work in the exhibition is the result of a creative partnership between artist and veteran to process and honor a veteran's wartime experiences. Together they celebrate our common humanity through storytelling and art. Featured artists include: Jason Henry Anderson, Haley Beann, Kara Bender, Gina Langston Brewer, Jessica "JB" Burke, G. David Burnell, Catherine E. Case, Barb Cherry, Keef Cross, Heather and Mark Davern, Jeff Elmore, Dawn Faber, Vanessa Grebe, Charity Hamidullah, Spencer Herr, Marjorie M. Huwa, Cheryl Johnson, Nancy Hilliard Joyce, Mary Kamerer, Jonathan Gregory Keller, Rebecca King Hawkinson, Al Leitch, Susan Lenz, Dre Lopez, Sammy Lopez, Joey Lynn, Elizabeth McBride, Ryan McEwen, La Ruchala Amyrrh Murphy, Ryan O'Sullivan, Holly S. Rauch, Aort Reed, Dwight Rose, Michael Ross, Lucas Sams, Sara Scott, Michael Shepard, Tatiana Sukhanov, Melvin Toledo, Cedric Umoja, Jim Wildman, and Olga Yukhno. Contact: (bulletsandbandaids.org). June 10 - Sept. 3 - "Resurgence and Renaissance: Art of the Catawba Nation Since 1973". A reception will be held on June 10, from noon-4pm. Featuring a range of arts and artists of the Catawba Nation from 1973 to present, this exciting exhibition centers around Catawba pottery, the oldest continuous ceramics tradition in North America, dating back thousands of years. Basketry, quilt works, and photography round out the exhibition to showcase the living traditions of Catawba arts, culture, and heritage. This is a 50-year anniversary exhibition that builds off a 1973 CMA exhibition of Catawba potters recognized as pillars of excellence in their craft. Since then, the citizens of the Catawba Nation continue to preserve their heritage through artistic traditions and innovation. "Resurgence and Renaissance: Art of the Catawba Nation Since 1973" includes some of the finest Catawba makers over the last half century, including those practicing today. This exhibition is organized by the Columbia Museum of Art, Columbia, South Carolina and the USCL Native American Studies Center, Lancaster South Carolina. June 10 - Sept. 3 - "Tina Williams Brewer: Stories of Grace". A reception will be held on June 16, from 5:30 - 8:30pm. For over 40 years, Tina Williams Brewer has created quilts that tell stories of vision and grace. A native of West Virginia, she draws on the rich Southern tradition of quilting, synthesizing her personal experiences with historical realities. Her work incorporates unique fabrics and inspirations from her travels, including time spent at St. Helena Island in South Carolina. The resulting vibrant, hand-stitched quilts explore themes relating to African diasporic history, spirituality, migration, and shared heritage. Organized by the Columbia Museum of Art. Through Jan. 1, 2025 - "The Collection". Come see the newly organized collection. We've gathered ancient and modern works of art, together in one space, that explore our shared archetypes, myths, and ideals. Galleries 5 & 6, Ongoing - "Modern & Contemporary Art from the Collection". Celebrating some of the CMA's greatest hits, this exhibition features over 30 paintings, drawings, photographs and sculptures from the Museum's collection that have not been on view recently. It offers the visitor experiences both serious and sensual and is designed to both entertain and enlighten. Notable works included are by Jasper Johns, Howard Thomas, Sally Mann and Edward Ruscha, whose famous image of the Hollywood Hills (on view) has become a staple of the art world. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. Admission: Yes, but there is no admission charge on Sun. Hours: Tue.-Sun., from 10am-5pm. Contact: 803/799-2810 or at (www.columbiamuseum.org).

McKissick Museum, University of South Carolina, USC Horseshoe, Columbia. Through Aug. 31 - "Needlework: Women's Unspoken Art Form". More than a required skill for girls and women in the 19th century, hand sewing was an act of creative expression. From functional household textiles, to clothing, to home décor accents, small embellishments made a big statement as an indicator of women's artistry and imagination. The University of South Carolina's McKissick Museum is proud to present Needlework: Women's Unspoken Art Form. Guest curated by art history major and USC staff member Rachel McKeown, this exhibit celebrates the individuality and craftsmanship of historic textiles from McKissick Museum's permanent collection. Ongoing - "Highlights from the Permanent Collections of McKissick Museum". Permanent - "Baruch Silver Collection," a collection of the Baruch family silver. And, "Natural Curiosity: USC and the Evolution of Scientific Inquiry into the Natural World". Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm & Sat., 11am-3pm. Contact: 803/777-7251 or at (<http://artsandsciences.sc.edu/mcks/>).

Mill District Public Art Trail (MDPAT), throughout the Whaley, Olympia and Granby neighborhoods, known as Columbia, SC's Mill District, Columbia. Ongoing - The MDPAT was conceived as a project in 2017 by 701 Center for Contemporary Art board and staff to connect the three neighborhoods through a creative endeavor. The inaugural works on the trail were created by 11 South Carolina artists - collaborators David Cianni (Aiken) and Anna Redwine (Columbia), Diana Farfán (Greenville), Susan Lenz (Columbia), Robert Lyon (Columbia), Doug McAbee (Greenwood), Philip Moody (Rock Hill), Carey Morton (Charleston), Jordan Sheridan (Columbia), Brittany Watkins (Columbia), and Fletcher Williams III (Charleston). The works on the Mill District Public Art Trail invite us to explore the art and highlight the unique character of the distinctive neighborhoods within the Mill District. Part of this journey is discovering art in unexpected and surprising spaces. It is also an indication of the ongoing transformation taking place in this historically important community. Hours: normal daylight hours. For further information call 803/238-2351 or visit (<https://www.701cca.org/mill-district-public-art-trail-faq-questions-answers>).

Work by Marie Boyd

Richland County Public Library, 1431 Assembly St., Columbia. The Gallery at Main, Through June 25 - "A Quilled Garden," featuring works by Marie Boyd. The exhibit arrives just in time to celebrate the arrival of spring flowers. The exhibit includes select original illustrations from her debut picture book "Just a Worm", which was published by Greenwillow Books, an imprint of HarperCollins Publishers. Boyd used a technique called quilting to create the art and illustrations in the exhibit. She cut colorful paper into narrow strips and then coiled, curled, and shaped the paper and glued it on edge to make the art. Ongoing - Featuring 20 pieces of public art on permanent display. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-9pm; Sat, 9am-6pm; Sun, 2-6pm. Contact: 803/988-0886 or at (www.richlandlibrary.com).

701 Center for Contemporary Art, 701 Whaley St., Columbia. Hallway Gallery, June 2 - July 29 - "Tall Women," featuring collage works by Ginny Merett. A reception will be held on June 4, from 2-4pm. An Ekphrastic Poetry Reading will be offered on July 9, from 2-4pm. Join artist Ginny Merett for an exhibit of her "Tall Women" series that pays homage to all women who stand tall even in the face of adversity. The roughly 12x60" multi-media collage figures showcase how Ginny reconstructs parts and pieces from magazine pages and other found materials to create new characters with unique personalities. Hours: Wed.-Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: call Caitlin Bright at 803/238-2351 or at (www.701cca.org).

SC State Museum, 301 Gervais St., Columbia. Ongoing - "The 521 All-Stars: A Championship Story of Baseball and Community,". Featuring 40 photographs exploring the story of a Black baseball team from Rembert, SC, and their fans. Based on the 1998 book by Frye Gaillard with photographs by Byron Baldwin, the exhibition highlights the story of the 521 All-Stars team of Rembert, SC, a Black baseball team with roots going back to the 1920s. Named for Hwy 521, which runs past their baseball field, the 521 All-Stars play for the love of the game and the pride and solidarity it brings. Featuring more than 40 framed black and white photographs taken during the team's 1996-1997 season, 521 All-Stars depicts baseball in its purest form: scrap metal bases, rotten wood bleachers, teams made up of brothers, fathers, sons and, most importantly, fellowship within the community. Ongoing - The South Carolina State Museum, the state's largest and most comprehensive museum, is located along the banks of the beautiful Congaree River in downtown Columbia, South Carolina. Founded in 1988, the State Museum is the primary storyteller of the history of South Carolina. Through rich and diverse collections displayed through interactive and engaging exhibitions, the State Museum strives to honor the groundbreaking nature of its setting, providing both residents and visitors an in-depth picture of the state's past, present and future. There is much to see and do every day at the State Museum through a variety of exhibitions and educational programs both offered at the museum and through distance learning programs, as well as through entertaining community events of all kind. The Crescent Café, second floor mezzanine of the Museum.
