Mount Airy

Mount Airy Museum of Regional History, 301 North Main Street, Mounty Airy. Ongoing - Ours is an all American story - typical of how communities grew up all across our great nation. While our story takes place in the back country of northwestern North Carolina at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains, it is likely to bear many similarities to the development of crossroads, towns, and cities throughout America. It had taken little more than 100 years for the corridors along the coastline of this still-new continent to overflow. As tensions grew and conflicts flared, the pioneer spirit set in. Families literally packed up everything they owned and headed into the unknown-searching for the "promised land." Admission: Yes. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., 1-4pm. Contact: 336/786-4478 or at (northcarolinamuseum.org).

Juneteenth is celebrated on June 19th every year and commemorates the announcement of the Emancipation Proclamation in the state of Texas, two and a half years after the Civil War. In honor of this historic celebration of freedom in the South, local African American artists will present works showcasing their African American heritage and cultural expression. This year's exhibition is curated by artist Diamond Campbell. Director's Gallery, June 1 - 30 - "Christina Carroll". A reception will be held on June 13, from 5-8pm. Starting off her creative journey painting with watercolor and charcoal sketches as a child, Carroll has always enjoyed being amongst artists, taking classes, and trying different techniques and mediums. She has most recently been absorbing pastel painting with yummy soft pastels and varieties of sanded and plain paper. This practice has turned into a passion for her, painting with pastels and the feel of pastel color gliding across the paper to build up colors in skin and hair, greens and purples in a forest scene, and lots of blues in the sky and water in an evening scene. Each new surface makes it event more exciting and challenging. Carroll is also a member of TRAA in New Bern, the Piedmont Pastel Society, and the Appalachian Pastel Society.
