Keiger's folk-inspired narrative paintings feature animals in protagonist roles, exercising dominion over their fantastical surroundings. Small Format Gallery, Sept. 2 - Oct. 26 - "Alain Mailland". Using mainly precious roots and species from his native country of France - pistachio, hackberry, root of heather - Alain Mailland creates sculptures representing a correspondence between animals, minerals, and plants. Mailland began his journey with as a carpenter and mason. He gradually changed his focus from wood joining to woodturning and has since dedicated himself exclusively to this craft. Lower Level Gallery, Sept. 2 - Oct. 26 - "Step Into the Light: Alex Bernstein and Mitchell Lonas". Using carved glass and incised aluminum, Alex Bernstein and Mitchell Lonas respectively create intimate narratives which, unlike the cold, hard materials they use, soften as gestural qualities and subject matter are revealed. Key to both artists' work is light. Light energizes and brings their work to life, enhancing color, form and imagery. While Lonas etches his shimmering stylized trees, feathers, nests, waterfalls and animals from aluminum panels coated in matte black, Bernstein carves and polishes colorful, translucent cast glass to unveil abstract sculptures inspired by the natural world. Upper Level Galleries, Sept. 2 - Oct. 26 - "Asheville Oblique". Ken Carder presents kinetic wood sculptures paired with abstract paintings of Asheville, painted by Tennessee artist Steve Ward. This collaboration began with Steve creating interpretive paintings of Ken's digitally altered screengrabs of Asheville locations. In response to the absence of figures in these urban paintings, Ken constructed kinetic wooden sculptures out of dying ash trees that threatened to fall on his studio. Through improvised abstraction, both artists demonstrate abstract works that invite the viewer to observe the architecture and natural resources of our vibrant city through a lens askew. Ongoing - Featuring works in a variety of mediums by regional, national and international artists. Work by Hoss Haley

Momentum Gallery, 24 N. Lexington Ave., Asheville. Through Dec. 31 - "Topography: Hoss Haley". Haley's monumental sculptures in steel, bronze, and concrete identify him as an accomplished artist with a strong point of view. His minimalist explorations of form take inspiration from geological features and architecture. Many of his works require a fair amount of engineering, and he often develops custom tools and processes to realize his ideas. Haley's iconic work examines concepts of permanence, gravity, implied movement, and more recently, transparency. Haley is also a talented draftsman making paintings on steel panels. Over the past three decades, Haley has achieved a great reputation through the placement of several significant public works, including corporate and museum acquisitions in NC, TN, VA, and beyond. There is a catalogue for this exhibition available through the gallery. Ongoing - located in downtown Asheville, offers a contemporary and modern program with an emphasis on emerging and mid-career artists. Occupying approximately 4000 square feet in an easily accessible, street-level space, the gallery's mission is to provide compelling, museum-quality art to our clients. Curated exhibitions featuring exceptional paintings, original prints, and innovative sculpture refresh regularly in the main spaces and smaller adjoining galleries. Momentum Gallery also participates in major art fairs exhibiting work by represented artists. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-6pm & Sun. noon-5pm. Contact: 828/505-8550 or at (momentumgallery.com).

Work by Bevelyn Afor Ukah

Pink Dog Creative Gallery, 348 Depot Street, in the River Arts District, Asheville. Through Sept. 25 - "What May Be," featuring an exhibition of paintings by Skip Rohde. News reports today can be frightening. Wars rage across the globe. The world's population is exploding at the same time that climate change threatens our ability to produce food. Social media and news sources stoke anger and violence. At a time when cooperation is more in need than ever before, it is in very short supply. "What May Be", a series of paintings by Asheville artist Skip Rohde, is a cautionary tale that looks at what might happen if current trends continue. Sept. 30 - Oct. 30 - "Our Ecology, Shifting Our Gaze Inward," featuring works by Bevelyn Afor Ukah. A reception will be held on Oct. 22, beginning at 7pm, with an Artist Talk at 8pm. However we choose to describe our bodies, there is a constant-- we are here together on this magical planet. This exhibit is a journey to find myself present in my own body with all of the complex stories floating around about who is worthy, who is beautiful, who is valuable, and who is not. This body of work has helped me to ground in the fact that I am a profound miracle, as we all are. Hours: Fri. & Sat., 11am-5pm or by chance. Contact: 828/776-3034 or at (www.pinkdog-creative.com).
