International African American Museum, 14 Wharfside Street, Charleston. Through Dec. 3 -"When It Rains It Shines," featuring a special exhibition by Fletcher Williams III. The exhibition is made possible by support from Bank of America. In "When It Rains It Shines," Williams constructs a labyrinth of personal memories, rituals, and sacred hideaways using sculpture, sound, and light. It is both a dreamscape and a psychedelic vision of what it is to be in and of the South. Both disorienting and inviting, this immersive installation offers visitors an opportunity to interact with the South in new and thought-provoking ways. Ongoing - The IAAM, which sits at the site of Gadsden's Wharf – one of the nation's most prolific former slave trading ports – includes nine core exhibition galleries and a special exhibition gallery, as well as a "floating" gallery that weaves contemporary art throughout the museum. The museum will open with more than 700 artifacts dating from 17th century to contemporary objects, alongside 1000 image and media collection pieces – all of which help connect the African American journey to its roots and connections to African and African Diaspora communities and cultures. The museum also houses the Center for Family History, a world-class genealogy and ancestry resource center, which began hosting genealogy classes and workshops in 2020. Hours: Tue.-Sun., 10am-5pm (last entry at 4pm). Contact: 843/872-5352 or at (iaamuseum.org).

Columbia Area

Work by Constaintine Manos

Columbia Museum of Art, Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia. Through Oct. 22 - "Spotlight: Yvonne Wells". Wells creates dynamic story quilts highlighting powerful historic Alabama figures such as Helen Keller. From the collection of the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts. Through Oct. 22 - "Constantine Manos: A Greek Portfolio". Born in Columbia to Greek immigrant parents in 1934, Constantine Manos traveled to Greece in the early 1960s, where he photographed the everyday lives of villagers over a period of three years. The resulting body of work, first published in 1972 as "A Greek Portfolio", solidified the photographer's reputation and quickly earned international recognition. In 1978, he donated 50 of those prints to the Columbia Museum of Art, a selection of which is on view in this exhibition. Manos' account captures the beauty, simplicity, and hardships of rural Greek life with the sensitivity of one with familial ties to that country. In intimate images exploring love, loss, faith, and family, the artist prompts reflection on the nature of human relationships and the connections between land and labor. Through Sept. 3 - "Bullets and Bandaids: A Veteran Anthology". Inspired by veterans from across North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, Bullets and Bandaids: A Veteran Anthology features stories and art that look at returning home after war to the newly unfamiliar "normalcy" of civilian life after the chaos of combat, asking: "What is my next step?" Each work in the exhibition is the result of a creative partnership between artist and veteran to process and honor a veteran's wartime experiences. Together they celebrate our common humanity through storytelling and art. Featured artists include: Jason Henry Anderson, Haley Beann, Kara Bender, Gina Langston Brewer, Jessica "JB" Burke, G. David Burnell, Catherine E. Case, Barb Cherry, Keef Cross, Heather and Mark Davern, Jeff Elmore, Dawn Faber, Vanessa Grebe, Charity Hamidullah, Spencer Herr, Marjorie M. Rauch, Aort Reed, Dwight Rose, Michael Ross, Lucas Sams, Sara Scott. Michael Shepard. Tatiana Sukhanov. Melvin Toledo, Cedric Umoja, Jim Wildman, and Olga Yukhno. Contact: (bulletsandbandaids. org). Through Sept. 3 - "Resurgence and Renaissance: Art of the Catawba Nation Since 1973". A reception will be held on June 10, troiti noon-4pm. Featuring a range of arts and artists of the Catawba Nation from 1973 to present, this exciting exhibition centers around Catawba pottery, the oldest continuous ceramics tradition in North America, dating back thousands of years. Basketry, quilt works, and photography round out the exhibition to showcase the living traditions of Catawba arts, culture, and heritage. This is a 50year anniversary exhibition that builds off a 1973 CMA exhibition of Catawba potters recognized as pillars of excellence in their craft. Since then, the citizens of the Catawba Nation continue to preserve their heritage through artistic traditions and innovation. "Resurgence and Renaissance: Art of the Catawba Nation Since 1973" includes some of the finest Catawba makers over the last half century, including those practicing today. This exhibition is organized by the Columbia Museum of Art. Columbia. South Carolina and the USCL Native American Studies Center, Lancaster South Carolina. Through Sept. 3 - "Tina Williams Brewer: Stories of Grace". For over 40 years, Tina Williams Brewer has created quilts that tell stories of vision and grace. A native of West Virginia, she draws on the rich Southern tradition of quilting, synthesizing her personal experiences
